Dear Alumnae, Parents and Friends of Smith:

For nearly 40 years, Smith Travel has provided Smith alumnae and their families and friends with enriching and rewarding travel experiences. Whether you choose to go on a river cruise, a land trip, a festival program or a multi-generational custom-designed adventure, Smith Travel fosters the spirit of intellectual inquiry that was kindled when you were a student at Smith.

Our mission at Smith Travel is to create dynamic international and domestic itineraries that offer unique access to diverse regions and cultures in the company of other intrepid, curious and engaging travelers. We know how hard it can be to plan a relaxing and memorable trip, so we take the stress out of travel by working with carefully selected tour operators who have an intimate knowledge of the chosen destinations.

In 2015, we had our most successful year ever with 475 travelers! On Smith trips, you can look forward to traveling with our esteemed faculty, meeting with local alumnae in the destinations you visit and gaining exclusive access to many of the sites on the itinerary.

In 2016, choose from a riverboat trip along the Ganges, a short getaway to Iceland, a Belize family adventure, a study trip to Aix–en–Provence or—for the first time in Smith Travel’s history—a fascinating insider’s view of Iran.

So begin your journey on the pages of this catalog and join us for the trip of a lifetime!

Warmest wishes,

Elizabeth Bigwood
Director for Travel and Education
Office of Alumnae Relations
Smith College

Exploring the world together: Smith Travel.

travel info visit our website at alumnae.smith.edu/travel questions call Smith Travel at 800-225-2029

Smith Travel: where in the world would you like to go?

Elizabth Bigwood Liz has been director of Smith Travel for 13 years. Her love for travel started at an early age in England, where her father organized annual family trips overseas. She has worked on a Greek cruise liner, taught English in Brazil and was a cruise representative for Thomas Cook. Liz has traveled to more than 70 countries and uses her wealth of knowledge to create memorable travel experiences for Smith alumnae.

Krystle Ellis Krystle Ellis is the program assistant for Smith Travel. A native of Seattle, Krystle received a bachelor’s degree in French from Western Washington University. She has taught English in Marseille and English language and literature courses at the Javelin George D. B. Prior to arriving at Smith, Krystle specialized in leisure and corporate travel at AAT Travel in Bellevue, Washington.

Nalini Bhushan, Ph.D. Professor of Philosophy The Romance of the Ganges February 1–14, 2016

John Brady, Ph.D. Mary Elizabeth Moses Professor of Geosciences Machu Picchu to the Galapagos March 15–29, 2016

Janie Vanpee ’72, Ph.D. Professor of French Studies and Elizabeth Mugar Eveillard ’69 Faculty Director of the Lewis Global Studies Center The Waterways of Holland and Belgium April 20–28, 2016

L. David Smith, Ph.D. Professor of Biological Sciences and Director of the Smith College Coral Reef Edventure Program Belize Family Adventure June 25–July 2, 2016

Meeting our team

Smith Travel: where in the world would you like to go?
Elizabeth Bigwood
Director for Travel

Liz has been director of Smith Travel for 13 years. Her love for travel started at an early age in England, where her father organized annual family trips overseas. She has worked on a Greek cruise liner, taught English in Brazil and was a resort representative for Thomas Cook. Liz has traveled to more than 70 countries and uses her wealth of knowledge to create memorable travel experiences for Smith alumnae.

Krystle Ellis
Program Assistant

Krystle Ellis is the program assistant for Smith Travel. A native of Seattle, Krystle received a bachelor's degree in French from Western Washington University. She has taught English in Marseille and English language and literature courses at the lycée Georges Duby. Prior to arriving at Smith, Krystle specialized in leisure and corporate travel at AAA Travel in Bellevue, Washington.

Smith Travel: where in the world would you like to go?

Dear Alumnae, Parents and Friends of Smith:

For nearly 40 years, Smith Travel has provided Smith alumnae and their families and friends with enriching educational travel experiences. Whether you choose to go on a new cruise, a land trip, a wildlife program or a multigenational custom-designed adventure, Smith Travel fosters the spirit of intellectual inquiry that was kindled when you were a student at Smith.

Our mission at Smith Travel is to create dynamic international and domestic itineraries that offer unique access to diverse regions and cultures in the company of other intrepid, curious and engaging travelers. We know how hard it can be to plan a relaxing and memorable trip, so we take the stress out of travel by working with carefully selected tour operators who have an intimate knowledge of the chosen destinations.

In 2015, we had our most successful year ever with 475 travelers! On Smith trips, you can look forward to traveling with our esteemed faculty, meeting with local alumnae in the destinations you visit and gaining exclusive access to many of the sites on the itinerary.

In 2016, choose from a riverboat trip along the Ganges, a short getaway to Iceland, a Belize family adventure, a study trip to Aix–en–Provence or—for the first time in Smith Travel’s history—a fascinating insider’s view of Iran.

So begin your journey on the pages of this catalog and join us for the trip of a lifetime!

Warmest wishes,

Elizabeth Bigwood
Director for Travel and Education
Office of Alumnae Relations
Smith College

Why Smith Travel?

Great camaraderie

Travelers represent a diverse range of ages, professions and interests, but all have a connection to Smith, which makes traveling together a special experience.

Stress-free travel planning

Smith Travel selects the most highly respected and trusted educational-tour operators to make your travel experience as seamless as possible.

Good value

Our tour operators are able to arrange high-quality, unique accommodations and amenities impossible for individual travelers to attain on their own.

www.alumnae.smith.edu/travel
Smith Travel: where in the world would you like to go?

Dear Alumnae, Parents and Friends of Smith:

For nearly 40 years, Smith Travel has provided Smith alumnae and their families and friends with enriching educational travel experiences. Whether you choose to go on a river cruise, a land trip, a wildlife program or an adventure cruise, Smith Travel fosters the spirit of intellectual inquiry that was kindled when you were a student at Smith.

Our mission at Smith Travel is to create dynamic international and domestic itineraries that offer unique access to diverse regions and culture in the company of other intrepid, curious and engaging travelers. We know that travel can be a relaxing and memorable trip, so we take the stress out of travel by working with carefully selected tour operators who have an intimate knowledge of the chosen destinations.

In 2015, we had our most successful year ever with 475 travelers! On Smith trips, you can look forward to traveling with our esteemed faculty, meeting with local alumnae in the destinations you visit and gaining exclusive access to many of the sites on the itinerary.

In 2016, choose from a selection of trips along the Ganges, a short getaway to Iceland, a Belize family adventure, a study trip to Aix-en-Provence or—for the first time in Smith Travel’s history—a fascinating insider’s view of Iran.

So begin your journey on the pages of this catalog and join us for the trip of a lifetime!

Warmest wishes,

Elizabeth Bigwood
Director for Travel and Education
Office of Alumnae Relations
Smith College

Elizabeth Bigwood
Liz has been director of Smith Travel for 13 years. Her love for travel started at an early age in England, where her father organized annual family trips overseas. She has worked on a Greek cruise line, taught English in Brazil and was a resort representative for Thomas Cook. Liz has traveled to more than 70 countries and uses her wealth of knowledge to create memorable travel experiences for Smith alumnae.

Krystle Ellis
Krystle Ellis is the program assistant for Smith Travel. A native of Seattle, Krystle received a bachelor’s degree in French from Western Washington University. She has taught English in Marseille and English language and literature courses at the Lycée Georges Duby. Prior to arriving at Smith, Krystle specialized in leisure and corporate travel at AAA Travel in Bellevue, Washington.

Nalini Bhushan, Ph.D.
Professor of Philosophy
The Romance of the Ganges
February 1–14, 2016

John Brady, Ph.D.
Mary Elizabeth Moses Professor of Geosciences
Machu Picchu to the Galápagos
March 15–29, 2016

Janie Vanpée ’72, Ph.D.
Professor of French Studies and Elizabeth Mugar Eveillard ’69 Faculty Director of the Lewis Global Studies Center
The Waterways of Holland and Belgium
April 20–28, 2016

L. David Smith, Ph.D.
Professor of Biological Sciences and Director of the Smith College Coral Reef Ed-Venture Program
Belize Family Adventure
June 25–July 2, 2016

Smith Travel: where in the world would you like to go?

Dear Alumnae, Parents and Friends of Smith:

For nearly 40 years, Smith Travel has provided Smith alumnae and their families and friends with enriching educational travel experiences. Whether you choose to go on a river cruise, a land trip, a wildlife program or an adventure cruise, Smith Travel fosters the spirit of intellectual inquiry that was kindled when you were a student at Smith.

Our mission at Smith Travel is to create dynamic international and domestic itineraries that offer unique access to diverse regions and culture in the company of other intrepid, curious and engaging travelers. We know that travel can be a relaxing and memorable trip, so we take the stress out of travel by working with carefully selected tour operators who have an intimate knowledge of the chosen destinations.

In 2015, we had our most successful year ever with 475 travelers! On Smith trips, you can look forward to traveling with our esteemed faculty, meeting with local alumnae in the destinations you visit and gaining exclusive access to many of the sites on the itinerary.

In 2016, choose from a selection of trips along the Ganges, a short getaway to Iceland, a Belize family adventure, a study trip to Aix-en-Provence or—for the first time in Smith Travel’s history—a fascinating insider’s view of Iran.

So begin your journey on the pages of this catalog and join us for the trip of a lifetime!

Warmest wishes,

Elizabeth Bigwood
Director for Travel and Education
Office of Alumnae Relations
Smith College

Exploring the world together. Smith Travel. trip info visit our website at alumnae.smith.edu/travel questions call Smith Travel at 800-225-2029
The June Adriatic trip was truly wonderful—an opportunity to see an unexpectedly, incredibly beautiful part of the world." —Mary Moses Professor of Geosciences

OFF THE BEATEN PATH

Exotic locations with unique itineraries organized by tour operators with years of experience in their region of expertise, sure to please the most discerning Smith alumnae.

In the Footsteps of the Maya in Chiapas, Mexico January 3–10, 2016 Villahermosa, Comalcalco, Palenque, Bonampak, Tuxtla, San Cristóbal de las Casas, Totoal Villages, Tuxtla Gutiérrez

In the Footsteps of the Maya in Chiapas, Mexico January 3–10, 2016 Villahermosa, Comalcalco, Palenque, Bonampak, Tuxtla, San Cristóbal de las Casas, Totoal Villages, Tuxtla Gutiérrez

The June Adriatic trip was truly wonderful—an opportunity to see an unexpectedly, incredibly beautiful part of the world." —Mary Moses Professor of Geosciences

OFF THE BEATEN PATH

Exotic locations with unique itineraries organized by tour operators with years of experience in their region of expertise, sure to please the most discerning Smith alumnae.

In the Footsteps of the Maya in Chiapas, Mexico January 3–10, 2016 Villahermosa, Comalcalco, Palenque, Bonampak, Tuxtla, San Cristóbal de las Casas, Totoal Villages, Tuxtla Gutiérrez

In the Footsteps of the Maya in Chiapas, Mexico January 3–10, 2016 Villahermosa, Comalcalco, Palenque, Bonampak, Tuxtla, San Cristóbal de las Casas, Totoal Villages, Tuxtla Gutiérrez

The June Adriatic trip was truly wonderful—an opportunity to see an unexpectedly, incredibly beautiful part of the world." —Mary Moses Professor of Geosciences

OFF THE BEATEN PATH

Exotic locations with unique itineraries organized by tour operators with years of experience in their region of expertise, sure to please the most discerning Smith alumnae.

In the Footsteps of the Maya in Chiapas, Mexico January 3–10, 2016 Villahermosa, Comalcalco, Palenque, Bonampak, Tuxtla, San Cristóbal de las Casas, Totoal Villages, Tuxtla Gutiérrez

In the Footsteps of the Maya in Chiapas, Mexico January 3–10, 2016 Villahermosa, Comalcalco, Palenque, Bonampak, Tuxtla, San Cristóbal de las Casas, Totoal Villages, Tuxtla Gutiérrez
The June Adriatic trip was truly wonderful—an opportunity to see an unexpectedly, incredibly beautiful part of the world.

Diane Gibbons Dodds '60
2016 Smith Travel

New Year’s in Cuba: A Family-Friendly Program December 26, 2015—January 2, 2016 Havana

In the Footsteps of the Maya in Chiapas, Mexico January 3–10, 2016 Villahermosa, Comalcalco, Palenque, Bonampak, Tres Rios, San Cristobal de las Casas, Tzotzil Villages, Tuxtla Gutiérrez

In the Footsteps of the Maya in Chiapas, Mexico January 3–10, 2016 Villahermosa, Comalcalco, Palenque, Bonampak, Tres Rios, San Cristobal de las Casas, Tzotzil Villages, Tuxtla Gutiérrez

In the Footsteps of the Maya in Chiapas, Mexico January 3–10, 2016 Villahermosa, Comalcalco, Palenque, Bonampak, Tres Rios, San Cristobal de las Casas, Tzotzil Villages, Tuxtla Gutiérrez

The Waterways of Holland and Belgium aboard MS Amadeus Gracie March 15–29, 2016

Machu Picchu to the Galapagos aboard MV Tere Moana March 16–30, 2016

The Passage of Lewis and Clark aboard the American Empress July 1–13, 2016

Off the Beaten Path

Exotic locations with unique itineraries organized by tour operators with years of experience in their region of expertise, sure to please the most discerning Smith alumnae.

For further details, please call Smith Travel 800-225-2029 or email alumtrav@smith.edu

See You trip info visit our website at alumnae.smith.edu/travel questions call Smith Travel at 800-225-2029
The Romanesque (Cuban):
Kuba/Canary River aboard Ganges Voyager
February 1-14, 2016
Kuba, Bencid, Kala, Matan,
Khrushchy, Bananer, Murunbaladad,
Mayapo, Chanchangue, Karmartu,
Lucknow, Vanae, Delhi. Post-tour extension available to the Royal Rajasthan and the Taj Mahal.

Passage through the Panama Canal and Costa Rica aboard MS Tew-Miante
February 26-March 5, 2016
Panama City, Colon, San Blas Islands, Grenada of the Or, Ica Cibaca, Golfo Dulce, Quayos, Manuel Antonio National Park, Curi National Wildlife Refuge, Puerto Caldera, San Jose. Pre-tour extension available to Panama. Post-tour extension available to Costa Rica.

Machu Picchu to the Galapagos
March 16-23, 2016
Limu, Cuzco, Sacred Valley, Machu Picchu, Quito, Bahia, Santa Cruz Island, Isabela Island, Fernandina Island, Santiago Island.

The Waterways of Holland and Belgium aboard MS Amsterdam
April 20-28, 2016
Bruges, Ghent, Brugge, Antwerp,
Maastricht, Nijmegen, Arnhem, Kampen,

Paradises and Passusades: Historic Lodgings of Spain and Portugal
April 25-May 9, 2016
Seville, Cordoba, Ronda, Granada, Ubeda, Toledo, Madrid.

A Week in Prague: Culture Across the Centuries
May 23-30, 2016
Prague, Terezín, Březno.

Turin Points of History in the Mediterranean:
Malta to Istanbul aboard Variety Voyager
June 1-10, 2016
Valletta, Syracuse, Palermo, Pisa, Dolce,
Athens, Çanakkale, Istanbul.

Beluga Family Adventure
June 23-July 2, 2016
Beluga City, Cayo District, Ambergris Caye.

Italy Rediscovered
July 13-24, 2016
Rome, Pescara, Perugia, Todi,
Viterbo, Assisi, Volterra, Siena.

The Art of Living in Aix-en-Provence:
Learn French, Study Cooking or Art
October 7-29, 2016
Luberon Valley, Marseille, Avignon,
Aix-en-Provence, Arles, Les Baux, the Luberon. Pre-tour extension available to France.

The Waterways of the Rhine and Moselle aboard MS Amsterdam
November 11-28, 2016
Koblenz, Trier, Nachbarschaft,
Rheinheim, Mainz, Tübingen, Heidelberg,
Cologne, Munster, Bonn, Koblenz. Post-tour extension available to Amsterdam.

Save the Date:
June 23-July 2, 2016
Beluga City, Cayo District, Ambergris Caye.

For group travel solutions, call Smith Travel at 800-225-2029 or email alumtrav@smith.edu.

For further details, please call Smith Travel at 800-225-2029 or email alumtrav@smith.edu.
Dear Alumnae, Parents and Friends of Smith:

For nearly 40 years, Smith Travel has provided Smith alumnae and their families and friends with enriching educational travel experiences. Whether you choose to go on a river cruise, a land trip, a wildlife program or a multigenerational custom-designed adventure, Smith Travel fosters the spirit of intellectual inquiry that was kindled when you were a student at Smith.

Our mission at Smith Travel is to create dynamic international and domestic itineraries that offer unique access to diverse regions and cultures in the company of other intrepid, curious and engaging travelers. We know how hard it can be to plan a relaxing and memorable trip, so we take the stress out of travel by working with carefully selected tour operators who have intimate knowledge of the chosen destinations.

In 2015, we had our most successful year ever with 475 travelers! On Smith trips, you can look forward to traveling with our esteemed faculty, meeting with local alumnae in the destinations you visit and gaining exclusive access to many of the sites on the itinerary.

In 2016, choose from a riverboat trip along the Ganges, a short getaway to Iceland, a Belize family adventure, a study trip to Aix–en–Provence or—for the first time in Smith Travel’s history—a fascinating insider’s view of Iran.

So begin your journey on the pages of this catalog and join us for the trip of a lifetime!

Warmest wishes,

Elizabeth Bigwood
Director of Smith Travel
Office of Alumnae Relations
Smith College

Exploring the world together: Smith Travel.

Copyright © 2016 Smith College. All Rights Reserved.

Smith Travel: where in the world would you like to go?

why smith travel?

great camaraderie

Travelers represent a diverse range of ages, professions and interests, but all have a connection to Smith, which makes traveling together a special experience.

stress-free travel planning

Smith Travel selects the most highly respected and trusted educational-tour operators to make your travel experience as seamless as possible.

good value

Our tour operators are able to arrange high-quality, unique accommodations and amenities impossible for individual travelers to attain on their own.

Meeting with local alumnae in the destinations you visit

Smith Travel:

where in the world

would you like to go?

Krystle Ellis

Krystle Ellis is the program assistant for Smith Travel. A native of Seattle, Krystle received a bachelor’s degree in French from Western Washington University. She has taught English in Marseille and English language and literature courses at the junior Georgie Daly. Prior to arriving at Smith, Krystle specialized in leisure and corporate travel at AAA Travel in Bellevue, Washington.

Alumnae House

33 Elm Street

Northampton, MA 01063