Cruising aboard the Deluxe M.S. VOLGA DREAM

August 19 to 29, 2012

ALUMNAE ASSOCIATION of SMITH COLLEGE

Dear Smith Alumnae and Friends:

The timeless pageant that is Russia reveals itself in the scenic rivers, lakes and canals that link Moscow with St. Petersburg. Between these two great cultural capitals lies a countryside seemingly untouched by the 20th century. Golden-domed churches rise out of the early morning mist, quaint wooden villages and old-world farms dot the verdant landscape, and the gentle light of early autumn evenings gives an otherworldly dimension to the banks of Russia's great "blue road" of inland waterways.

Join us for a once-in-a-lifetime journey aboard the exclusively chartered, deluxe M.S. VOLGA DREAM, the premier ship cruising Russia's waterways. Explore the greatest treasures and mysteries of classical Russian culture, steeped in unmatched artistic, historical and architectural legacies. During an excellent time of year to visit, spend one night aboard ship in the fabled city of Moscow, the political and commercial capital of the world's largest country and the cultural frontier between East and West. From Moscow, cruise for six nights through the heartland of Mother Russia, where everyday life goes on at the measured pace it has kept for generations. Here, villagers still dwell in traditional wooden cottages and preserve the folkways of their ancestors, and onion-domed churches and fortified monasteries testify to the abiding faith of the Russian people. Our program concludes with two nights aboard ship in St. Petersburg, Russia's "window on the West," the majestic legacy of that most visionary of czars, Peter the Great. This program also features a two-night Pre-Cruise Option in Moscow.

This unique opportunity to enjoy a truly deluxe cruise in Russia features a thoughtfully crafted itinerary and will appeal not only to the first-time traveler to Russia, but also to the return visitor curious to see the astounding changes that have taken place in Russia's two largest and most important cities. You will be led on this trip by William G. Wagner, Brown Professor of History at Williams College, and Peter J. Scotto, professor of Russian and Eurasian Studies at Mt. Holyoke College. Space is very limited, and we encourage you to reserve today as this program sells out year after year; early booking savings are available only until February 28, 2012.

Sincerely,

Carrie Cadwell Brown, Ed.M '82

Among the world's prodigious capitals of culture, no two cities stand higher than St. Petersburg and Moscow. St. Petersburg will capture your imagination; Moscow will stir your soul.

The very creation of St. Petersburg was a cultural statement by Peter the Great, whose vision was to "open a window on the West," to rival Europe's greatest cities. This epicenter of art and architecture is showcased during a specially arranged, early opening of the State Hermitage Museum to allow you to view the incomparable treasures of Catherine the Great's spectacular collections. True to Peter the Great's vision, St. Petersburg, the literary and musical center of Russia, has produced universally revered ballets, novels and classical compositions.

A medieval city in its layout and major architecture, with four UNESCO World Heritage sites, here you will visit the mesmerizing Kremlin complex of museums, including the famous Armory, golden-domed churches and functional government buildings, and sense firsthand the power of one of the most dynamic cities in the world.
