

Hello Local Smithies!

It has been a great year for the renaissance of the Smith College Club of Charlottesville. We've been thrilled with the excitement and interest of local alumnae from Lexington to Gordonsville, Harrisonburg to Lynchburg, and all points between and nearby. Your feedback, advice, and guidance has been invaluable. Thank you!

Now that we have a better idea of what we as a group want the club to be, it's time to formalize membership in the club. As a resident of the region, you are automatically a member of the Smith Club of Charlottesville. Our club is entirely self-supporting. We ask that active members who can pay dues choose one of the options on the next page. Dues pay for administrative costs of running the Smith club, awarding local Smith Book Awards, and underwriting the events the club sponsors during the year.

If you wish to continue getting periodic invitations and updates via postal mail, make sure you indicate that in the Mailing Preferences section. We will ask this of all local alumnae each year. If Smith has your correct email address, you will continue to get email updates with the same information, even if you don't send this form back.

We're also excited to be putting together:

A Smith Club of Charlottesville/Central and Western Virginia Directory!

It will be available online for you to download, view, and print. Participation is voluntary; only participants will have access to the directory. You do not have to be an active member of the club to participate. Print copies will be available for an additional $5 for people without internet access.

Upcoming Events!

This year we're planning to bring in a Smith Speaker, organize a cultural outing (early suggestions include the Kluge-Ruhe Museum in Charlottesville, the Anne Spencer Museum in Lynchburg, and the Quilt Museum in Harrisonburg) and have our annual meeting. We'd love to hear your ideas and suggestions. If you'd like to host a tea, potluck, or other gathering, let us know.
