DEAR SMITH ALUMNAE AND FRIENDS,

Immerse yourself in glorious Southern culture and the compelling Civil War history that shaped our nation on this outstanding Mississippi River cruise. Board the luxury riverboat American Queen, and sail to charming river towns steeped in classic antebellum grandeur and momentous history. From cobbled downtown districts and opulent mansions to haunting battle sites—step back into the 19th century on this remarkable voyage.

Begin with a stay in dynamic Memphis, as much a bustling riverboat port today as it was in the early 1800s, and take in Civil War history at the famed Shiloh National Military Park. Then board the grand American Queen, the largest riverboat in the world, and sail to fascinating ports in Mississippi and Louisiana. Head ashore in Vicksburg, where you’ll find a rich Southern heritage and the Vicksburg National Military Park, which commemorates the 47-day siege of the city in 1863. Continue to Natchez, a city of Southern charm and antebellum mansions, followed by the lovely town of St. Francisville, home to almost 150 historic buildings on the National Register. Stop in Louisiana’s vibrant capital, Baton Rouge, a modern metropolis bursting with Old Southern flavor, and visit Houmas House Plantation, the “Crown Jewel of Louisiana’s River Road,” before concluding your journey in New Orleans.

Delve into Southern culture and the American Civil War, while gaining insight from lectures given by Gary W. Gallagher, John L. Nau III Professor at the University of Virginia; David L. Carlton, Associate Professor at Vanderbilt University; William R. Ferris, Joel R. Williamson Eminent Professor at the University of North Carolina; Antonio D. Tillis, Associate Professor at Dartmouth College; and Elizabeth R. Varon, Langbourne M. Williams Professor at the University of Virginia.

This voyage offers the unique opportunity to cruise the Mighty Mississippi while exploring one of the most pivotal times in America’s history. Space is limited, so be sure to reserve your spot by October 30, 2013 to receive a two-night pre-cruise hotel stay in Memphis and a $100 onboard credit per stateroom.

Sincerely,

Life on the American Queen is as unique and enriching as the riverboat tradition itself. Night after night, music fills the majestic two-deck tall Grand Saloon, a stunning replica of the famed Ford’s Theatre. Showboat-style cabaret acts and old-fashioned radio shows add variety and charm to the evening lineup. By day, the Riverlorian, your onboard historian, offers lectures and river lore. The Ladies’ Parlor and Gentlemen’s Card Room are meeting points for new friends. And the calliope, a steam-powered organ, beckons anyone inclined to play.

May 15 Memphis, Tennessee
Your journey begins with a two-night stay at The Peabody Memphis hotel. Located in the heart of the city, the hotel offers easy access to many attractions.

May 16 Memphis, Tennessee
Perched on a bluff overlooking the Mississippi, Memphis has been welcoming steamboats since before the Civil War. Today the city abounds with Americana, from legendary Beale Street to Elvis Presley’s Graceland.

Go Next Exclusive Excursion Visit the renowned Shiloh National Military Park.

May 17 Memphis, Tennessee
Enjoy a lecture given by acclaimed Civil War historian Gary W. Gallagher at The Peabody Memphis hotel. Embark on your river cruise aboard the grand American Queen in the afternoon.

May 18 River Cruising

May 19 Vicksburg, Mississippi
Billed as the “Red Carpet City of the South,” Vicksburg is a unique blend of old and new and displays its antebellum heritage with tremendous pride. The site of a dramatic siege that was a major turning point in the Civil War, Vicksburg is now a center of Southern hospitality with a vibrant downtown area.

INCLUDED EXCURSION The Vicksburg tour makes stops at The Church of the Holy Trinity; Pemberton’s Headquarters, Confederate headquarters during the Siege of Vicksburg; the Old Court House Museum, which showcases artifacts from pre-Columbian times to Civil War implements; and the Washington Street shopping area, home to the Biedenharn Coca-Cola Museum.

May 20 Natchez, Mississippi
Step into the plantation lifestyle of the antebellum South in Natchez, one of the oldest European settlements in the lower Mississippi River Valley and the original capital of Mississippi. With a history shaped by Native Americans and those of French, African, British and Spanish descent, Natchez is a charming and authentic Southern town with a rich heritage.

INCLUDED EXCURSION Take in some historic Natchez mansions on a motor coach tour, which includes stops at the Natchez Visitors Center, Magnolia Hall, Rosalie Mansion, and the William Johnson House as well as a narrated tour of Stanton Hall, considered the grandest of the Natchez mansions.
Creating plates inspired by culinary classics of America’s South and utilizing the best of the season’s offerings from stops along the way, award-winning chef Regina Charboneau lends her expertise and Southern hospitality to the unique dining experience on the American Queen. Grab a simple snack at the River Grill, indulge in the elegance of the J.M. White Dining Room, or satisfy your appetite any hour of the day at the Front Porch Café as you sample Charboneau’s delectable creations, from Pork Loin stuffed with Andouille Sausage to Corn Fritters and Bourbon Pecan Pie.

Premium Choice Tours will also be offered in each port of call for an additional charge. Itinerary and shore excursions are subject to change.

SOUTHERN HOSPITALITY

MAY 21 ST. FRANCISVILLE, LOUISIANA
With over 140 buildings and plantation homes on the National Register, this quaint town is a window to history. Here are the legacies of the Butlers, the Forts, the Barrows and the Turnbulls—families who helped build the South. Follow in the footsteps of the guests who stayed here, including Andrew Jackson and John James Audubon.

INCLUDED EXCURSION The hop-on, hop-off motor coach tour takes you to both historic and modern sites, including the West Feliciana Historical Society Museum, the Grace Episcopal Church and the Old Market Hall, where you can browse through art, jewelry and handmade items.

MAY 22 BATON ROUGE, LOUISIANA
Boasting a storied past and vibrant present, the capital city lives up to its motto, “Authentic Louisiana at every turn.” Baton Rouge is home to Magnolia Mound, one of the few surviving homes featuring French and West Indies architecture of early Louisiana.

INCLUDED EXCURSION Your city tour includes the USS Kidd and adjoining Veterans Memorial Museum, the historic Old Governor’s Mansion, the Capital Park Museum, the Old Arsenal Museum, the LSU Museum of Art in the new Shaw Center for the Arts, and St. Joseph’s Cathedral.

MAY 23 HOUMAS HOUSE, LOUISIANA
Beneath the shadows of ancient oak trees and among 38 acres of southern splendor is the Crown Jewel of Louisiana’s River Road, once the largest sugar plantation in America.

INCLUDED EXCURSION Take a walking tour of the magnificent Houmas House Plantation and its outstanding gardens.

MAY 24 NEW ORLEANS, LOUISIANA
Disembark in the morning and bid farewell to the American Queen.

Note: If you are interested in an optional Premium Choice Tour of New Orleans, your return flight should be scheduled to depart after 2:00 p.m.
Welcome to the grand American Queen, a breathtaking combination of modern comfort and antebellum charm. All suites and staterooms aboard the American Queen feature flat-screen TVs, extravagant bedding and fine linens, and luxury hotel-style service. Sip sweet lemonade and partake in the convivial atmosphere of open verandas and the promenade, or enjoy a quiet respite in your elegant suite or deluxe stateroom designed with all the comforts of home. Life aboard the American Queen flows like a gentle river—at your pace and according to your taste.

A specialist in the history of the southern economy, he is the author of Mill and Town in South Carolina, 1880-1920 (Baton Rouge: Louisiana State University Press, 1982). Mill and Town finds the indigenous roots of industrialization in the economic revolution in the South resulting from the Civil War and Emancipation and the resulting expansion of a dynamic, town-dwelling middle class, and explores the tense relationship between these “town people” and the white working class recruited to work in the new mills. He has also co-authored, with Peter A. Coclanis, The South, the Nation, and the World: Essays in Southern Economic Development (Charlottesville: University of Virginia Press, 1984) and Confronting Southern Poverty and the Great Depression (Boston:Bedford/St., Martins, 1996). At Vanderbilt, he teaches the U.S. History survey (and has edited a documentary reader for the survey), the History of the American South, the History of American Enterprise, and the History of Appalachia.

WILLIAM R. FERRIS
William R. Ferris is the Joel R. Williamson Eminent Professor of History and the Sr. Assoc. Director of UNC’s Center for the Study of the American South. Ferris is an internationally recognized leader in Southern studies, African American music, and folklore who has written or edited 10 books and created 15 documentary films, including the monumental Encyclopedia of Southern Culture, which was nominated for a Pulitzer Prize. Other titles include My Poor Heart Ease: Voices of the Mississippi Blues and, most recently, The Storied South: Voices of Writers and Artists. Ferris’ many prestigious honors include the Charles Frankel Prize in the Humanities, the American Library Association’s Dartmouth Medal, the Mississippi Institute of Arts and Letters Lifetime Achievement Award, and the W.C. Handy Blues Award.
