Join fellow Smith Travel passengers for a long weekend escape to exotic Iceland. From steamy hot springs to top-notch spas, magnificent malls to art museums, this unique land is the perfect place to relax, recharge, and explore.

Reykjavik has a population of 170,000 and offers a unique mix of culture and local village roots. Where else can you explore the impressive Great Geysir, glaciers, magnificent waterfalls and icecaps, as well as a program of familiar city joys? The combination of remarkable natural features with art museums, theaters, an opera house, and a symphony orchestra offers a rejuvenating experience for all tastes and interests.

Legends say that the ancient gods themselves guided Iceland’s first settler, Ingolfur Arnarson, to make his home in Reykjavik (“Smoky Bay”), named after the geothermal steam he saw. Today this geothermal energy heats homes and outdoor swimming pools throughout the city – a pollution-free energy source that leaves the air outstandingly fresh, clean and clear.

Dine on Icelandic specialties, including delicious seafood, ocean-fresh from the morning’s catch; highland lamb; and unusual varieties of game. It’s purely natural food imaginatively served to delight the most discerning of diners. Reykjavik is also renowned as one of Europe’s hottest nightspots, where the action on the friendly pub and nightlife scene lasts right through the long winter nights.

The compact city places everything within your reach. With its long main streets and large Kringlan mall, Iceland’s capital is a great place to shop, too – with a bonus of tax-free shopping for visitors! Be on the lookout not just for souvenirs (especially woolens and handicrafts) but also for stylish consumer goods and designer labels at competitive prices.

Take advantage also of optional tours for both traditional and offbeat attractions – including elf-spotting tours, Viking feasts, whale watching, horseback riding, lava fields, and a variety of sports and leisure activities. This Smith College alumnae adventure offers the best of a guided tour plus time to explore on your own.

March 20 - 24, 2014
Day 1, Thursday March 20th
Evening departure from Logan Airport, where we board our direct Iceland Air service to Iceland.

Day 2, Friday March 21st
Early morning arrival in Iceland; we will be met at the airport and escorted to our hotel in Reykjavik. Most hotels know that Americans arrive early and will do everything possible to help you check in upon arrival. However, this may not always be possible and we may need to wait a bit for our rooms, but the hotel will assist us and make sure we are comfortable in the interim. This afternoon we tour Reykjavik for a wonderful introduction to Europe’s smallest capital city! The tour covers the Old Town, the shopping districts, the Parliament, Hofdi House, Hallgrim’s church and much more! Dinner at a restaurant near the hotel this evening. (B, D)

Day 3, Saturday March 22nd
Today we capture the essence of Iceland - the Golden Circle tour. We see the majestic dual-folding Gullfoss waterfall and gaze upon the Great Geyser, which spouts steam with amazing force. We’ll pass close by the Eyjafjallajokull Volcano, which recently caused so much chaos with European air traffic, and stop to peer into the watery depths of Keri volcanic crater. We’ll enjoy a traditional Icelandic lobster feast at a local restaurant on our way back to the hotel. (B, D)

Day 4, Sunday March 23rd
A free day in Reykjavik. Explore the galleries and museums of the city, enjoy the tax-free shopping or pamper yourself in one of the many local spas. There will also be a variety of optional activities available; from taking a snowmobile safari to the top of a glacier, riding an Icelandic pony to going in search of the Northern Lights. (B)

Day 5, Monday March 24th
Today we take a brief tour of the exotic, moonlike Reykjanes peninsula. Our first visit is to Bessastadir, official estate for Iceland’s President. Then we bathe in the renowned Blue Lagoon, an azure pool of mineral-rich warm water amid a lava field. There are wonderful facilities to shower and change at the site before we continue to the airport for our return flight to Boston. (B)
