EARLY REGISTRATION SAVINGS OF $1,000 PER CABIN
Dear Alumnae and Friends,

There are certain journeys that are so unique, they capture the imagination of travelers. The journey described in this brochure, which combines an exploration of Sarajevo—one of the most intriguing cities in all of Europe—with a cruise along the sublime coast of Croatia and Montenegro, is certainly one such journey.

Sarajevo, where our adventure begins, is one of Europe’s most fascinating and loveliest cities. Yet few travelers have visited this remarkable European capital. Lying between gently sloping hills in a splendid river valley, Sarajevo is a city with a rich, vibrant culture that draws upon the traditions of Christians, Jews, and Muslims who have coexisted and intermingled here for centuries. Noted for its scenic setting and its unusual historical and cultural monuments, Sarajevo is also known for an architecture that blends elegant modern boulevards with the narrow lanes and buildings of the Old Town, where the markets will remind you of the souks of the Middle East.

As we travel from Sarajevo to Dubrovnik we will pass through glorious scenery to visit Mostar, where the buildings and its landmark stone bridge—set majestically along the banks of the pale-green Neretva River—reveal both oriental traditions and western influences. In beautiful Dubrovnik, known as the “Pearl of the Adriatic,” you will enjoy a full day exploring one of the finest medieval cities in Europe, where the streets are lined with splendid examples of Romanesque, Gothic, Renaissance, and baroque architecture, before boarding the 100-guest Corinthian—the perfect vessel for navigating the islands and inlets and bays of Croatia’s and Montenegro’s famed coastline.

Along our cruising route, dense, dark green forests spread right down to the water’s edge, and harbors are guarded by beautifully preserved historic towns and centuries-old battlements that appear to rise out of the sea. Corinthian will sail the only fjord in southern Europe to reach Kotor, and call at several of the enchanting islands of Croatia including unspoiled Vis, fertile Hvar, picturesque Korcula, and the unusually formed Kornati Archipelago. Our journey terminates in Venice, where you will appreciate the spires, domes, and bell towers of this magical city from the perfect vantage point of Corinthian’s decks.

This is your opportunity to savor two superlative experiences: discovering magnificent Sarajevo and the landscapes of other parts of Bosnia-Herzegovina; and exploring the sublime coast of Croatia and Montenegro aboard an elegant and spacious small cruise ship. Join us this year for a once-in-a-lifetime land and sea journey to this spectacular corner of the world.

Sincerely,

Elizabeth Bigwood, Director, Smith Travel

Cruise, Learn & Be Inspired

This cruise will be accompanied by expert speakers and local guides, who will lecture on various topics relating to our destinations to introduce you to the culture and history of these unforgettable lands. You will also be joined by a renowned chef and cookbook author, who will give cooking demonstrations and culinary lectures onboard.

Bosiljka Glumac is a Professor of Geosciences at Smith College, specializing in sedimentary geology. Born and raised on the Istrian peninsula of Croatia, she and colleagues from the University of Zagreb, Croatian Geological Survey, and Croatian Natural History Museum, have done extensive fieldwork in the areas we will travel—examining large sauropod dinosaur footprints in a quarry in Istria, analyzing sediment and speleothem samples from a cave near Zagreb, hiking on rugged karst terrains of the Dinaridic mountains, and island hopping in Dalmatia. Her lectures will focus on the origin and evolution of the Adriatic Sea, landscapes and landforms of the Adriatic coast, and the historical use of local limestone as building and decorative stone.

Carol Nackenoff is Richter Professor and Chair of the Political Science Department at Swarthmore College, where she teaches American politics, constitutional law, and environmental politics and policy. She is the author of _The Fictional Republic: Horatio Alger and American Political Discourse_ and co-editor of _Statebuilding from the Outside In_ and _Jane Addams and the Practice of Democracy_. In 2013, she was one of Swarthmore’s official observers at the UN Framework Convention on Climate Change (COP-19), and just prior to the cruise, she will be in China for a three-week attachment to her spring course on Water Policies, Water Issues: China and the U.S. She has made two recent, rewarding trips to Croatia and is happy to be returning.

Giuliano Hazan is one of the world’s foremost authorities on Italian cuisine. A TODAY show regular, his cookbooks have earned him a James Beard Award nomination and the World Cookbook Award for Best Italian Cookbook in the English Language. In 2007 the International Association of Culinary Professionals named him Cooking Teacher of the Year. During this voyage, Chef Giuliano will talk about how Italian food and its history have influenced the cuisines of Croatia and the greater Mediterranean region, and he will give a demonstration or two of how to prepare simple yet authentic meals.

Corinthian Sets the Standard for Private-Style Cruising

In an era of mega cruise ships that carry thousands of passengers, Corinthian is a delightful alternative. More like a private yacht than a cruise ship, Corinthian accommodates only 100 guests in 50 suites. Corinthian's limited guest capacity, fine facilities, and distinctive style of operation attract like-minded travelers who return again and again to enjoy its custom-crafted itineraries and a style of cruising that is rarely found today.

All of Corinthian’s suites face outside, providing views of the sea and landscape. Several have a private balcony. There are expansive open deck areas and attractive facilities, including a gym, spa, library (with Internet access), beauty salon, two lounges, a sun deck with Jacuzzi, and an outdoor cafe. An elegant restaurant accommodates all guests in an open, unassigned seating. An elevator serves all decks. A resident physician attends a well-equipped infirmary. Wi-Fi is available throughout the ship.

Served by 65 seasoned officers and crew, Corinthian complies with the latest international safety regulations, including those of the U.S. Coast Guard, meets the requirements of the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention/U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, and is outfitted with the most current navigational and communications technology. Corinthian is equipped with retractable fin stabilizers and a fleet of Zodiac inflatable craft for forays ashore.
TIMELESS SARAJEVO

Effortlessly straddling both eastern and western traditions, Sarajevo, the magnificent capital of Bosnia and Herzegovina, is one of the loveliest and most historic cities in Europe, with centuries of influence from the Ottoman and Austrian Empires on display. The city retains a particular, arresting charm with its many cafes and theaters that have sprouted among the traditional buildings of varying architectural styles. Its breathtaking backdrop of seemingly endless hills and towering mountains—the location of the 1984 Winter Olympic Games— isolate the city, creating a timeless world. Despite its seclusion, Sarajevo has always kept its doors open to the rest of the world. Adherents of Islam, Orthodoxy, Catholicism, and Judaism have coexisted in Sarajevo for centuries, and it is one of the few places on Earth where you will find an Orthodox and a Catholic church, a mosque, and a synagogue within easy walking distance of each other. Our exploration of this vibrant city will allow you to experience, in depth, the treasures of what has been called “the European Jerusalem.”
