INTRODUCTION

In May of each year, Smith College welcomes her alumnae back to campus for Reunion. In addition to reuniting with classmates and friends, alumnae have myriad opportunities for networking, learning about college programs and priorities, and a chance to once again experience some of the intellectual life of Smith College.

The class Reunion Chairs, in collaboration with college staff, lead the planning efforts for the class. Reunion Chairs, with their planning team, coordinate engagement and hospitality and plan programming and/or entertainment for the class, allowing enough time for classmates to reminisce, experience what’s new at Smith, and visit old haunts.

This guide is an important resource for class Reunion volunteers. It outlines in detail the specifics that each volunteer needs to do the job, and it is just one of the tools available. You’ll find the most up-to-date Reunion planning information, all the forms, and a number of great ideas and suggestions from classes that have planned especially successful Reunions on the Tools for Reunion Planners webpage at http://alumnae.smith.edu/. We encourage all Reunion volunteers to make full use of the online resources available.

The information contained in this Reunion Planning Guide is current as of September 2018 and is subject to change. For the latest updates, please refer to the Tools for Reunion Planners webpage at http://alumnae.smith.edu/.

Thank you for volunteering for Smith!

ROLE OF COLLEGE STAFF

Office of Alumnae Relations staff
Planning for Reunion is a year-round effort. The staff is specifically responsible for:

- Planning programs with intellectual content that highlights college priorities
- Designing and producing all Reunion correspondence produced by the college, including the Reunion Save-the-Date postcard, Reunion registration materials, and the Reunion website
- Coordinating all Reunion registration, both online and by mail
- Assisting and supporting Reunion Chairs in planning their class program and providing tools and resources for volunteers
- Coordinating with various college departments, including Facilities Management, Dining Services, Educational Technology Services (ETS), and student workers to prepare the campus for returning alumnae
- Recruiting and hiring Class Assistants to work with classes during Reunion
- Organizing traditional Smith events, such as the Parade, Ivy Day, and Illumination

Attendance at Reunion varies from class to class and also depends on the Reunion being celebrated. Refer to the Historic Reunion Attendance Counts at the end of this guide.

The Smith Fund staff
The Smith Fund staff works year-round on building support for the annual giving program. Each class has a designated staff person who works directly with Smith Fund volunteers in advancing their class’s fundraising goals. A member of The Smith Fund office assists Fund Team Coordinators, Class Fund Agents, and Special Gift Chairs in soliciting classmates for their annual gifts, screening classmates for major gift prospects, setting class goals and providing a personal connection and outreach to classmates while promoting the college’s case for support. By giving to The Smith Fund, all classmates can honor their Reunion whether or not they can return to campus for their Reunion.

Class Assistants
All classes are assigned between two and five Class Assistants who are carefully selected for these highly competitive positions. They are available to help in whatever ways are needed during Reunion, such as assisting with headquarters setup, assisting with meal check-ins, and guiding alumnae through Reunion programs. Class Assistants attend all class dinners as guests of the class.

Your Class Assistants will reach out to Reunion Chairs in April before your Reunion, and may be available to help with pre-Reunion tasks.
ROLE OF REUNION CHAIRS

The Reunion Chairs appoint classmates to committees and coordinate the work of all involved, and work closely with alumnae relations staff in planning class events and programs within the context of the larger Reunion program.

The Office of Alumnae Relations recommends that classes have two Reunion co-chairs.

Responsibilities

- Serve as primary liaison between the class and alumnae relations staff.
- Participate in training offered by the Office of Alumnae Relations as appropriate throughout her term in office and specifically eighteen months prior to Reunion.
- Attend the Reunion of the class preceding hers as an observer one year before her Reunion.
- Identify and recruit classmates for the Reunion Committee. Outline their duties and responsibilities, consult with them frequently, follow up on plans, and set clear deadlines.
- Coordinate the development of a theme and corresponding graphics for Reunion and be responsible for specific Reunion communications to the class.
- Plan Reunion schedule/programming for the class.
- Select and order souvenirs/mementos for classmates.
- Oversee the Reunion budget (in cooperation with the class treasurer)
- Ensure all Reunion Planning Worksheets and Forms are submitted to the Office of Alumnae Relations by the due dates.
- Act as the principal source of Reunion information and submit Reunion updates to the class President/Web Chair/Digital Media Coordinator for inclusion in communications to the class.
- Invite the Reunion Chair(s) of the class having its comparable Reunion the year following yours to observe Reunion.
- Attend Reunion.

Post-Reunion

- Maintain all planning records, including Reunion mailings, newsletters, emails, theme ideas, vendors used, lists of committee members, etc., to pass on to the succeeding Reunion Chairs.
- Complete a post-Reunion Report to be shared with the succeeding Reunion Chair(s), the Reunion Chair(s) for the class following hers, and the Office of Alumnae Relations.
- Ensure that all Reunion wrap-up activities are completed (refer to the post-Reunion section of this guide).
- Ensure that records and memorabilia of permanent value to the class are stored in the class locker or with an alumna until the next Reunion.

Resources

- Reunion Chairs will find specific tools and resources to help them plan a successful Reunion on the Tools for Reunion Planners webpage at http://alumnae.smith.edu/
Involving as many people as possible in Reunion planning helps to build enthusiasm. Reunion committee membership provides an excellent opportunity for developing interest in both the class and the overall Reunion program.

The success of the Reunion program depends in large part on the active participation and commitment of class volunteers. Despite the fact that people are increasingly busy, most people find volunteer work of some kind highly rewarding and gratifying.

The following positions help coordinate Reunion planning efforts:

- House Reps Chair and House Reps
- Headquarters Chair
- Class Program Chair
- Alumnae Parade Chair

House Representatives
One of the most engaging positions on the Reunion committee, House Reps contact their former senior housemates to encourage their attendance at Reunion. The House Rep Chair recruits a class member from each house to act as the House Rep, then coordinates the efforts of this group. House Reps begin their jobs during the fall preceding Reunion, or even before.

House reps need to be kept informed of class activities, planned Reunion programming, and overall attendance, so they are able to answer classmates’ questions and provide them with the most up-to-date information. The Office of Alumnae Relations can provide a list of classmates with contact information.

Headquarters Chair
The Headquarters Chair is responsible for setting up and decorating the headquarters, providing refreshments, and creating a welcoming environment for classmates. The headquarters section of this guide contains specific details about what is provided at headquarters, and a list of suggested supplies and materials to bring.

It is strongly suggested that the Headquarters Chair be someone within driving distance of Northampton to make planning visits prior to Reunion and transportation of headquarters materials easier.

Class Program Chair
The Class Program Chair plans programming for the weekend that effectively draws on the Reunion theme, during specific time slots reserved for class programming. Programs may range from an after-dinner discussion, to a panel moderated by classmates, class survey results, or a presentation by a notable classmate.

Alumnae Parade Chair
The Alumnae Parade Chair provides the wording for the parade signs to the Office of Alumnae Relations, announces parade plans at Friday dinner, reminds classmates to dress in white attire for the parade, assists classmates in parade lineup on Saturday morning, and ensures that class officers are in the proper places.
REUNION THEME AND LOGO

Classes should develop a Reunion theme and design a logo as early as possible. A Reunion logo that incorporates your class color and the theme should be designed and carried throughout all your class correspondence, e-newsletters, website, parade signs. This will provide a consistent visual identity with which classmates will become familiar as Reunion approaches. A list of past Reunion themes is available on the Reunion webpage.

REUNION MEMENTOS OR SOUVENIRS

Many classes choose items in their class color that may be worn at the parade. For any items that require a significant amount of capital, an adequate amount should be built into the class registration fee to cover the expense in its entirety. Classes are responsible for selecting, ordering, and paying vendors.

Items that generally work well as mementos include coffee or travel mugs, sunglasses, tote bags with class logo, umbrellas, luggage tags/keychains, pashminas, and hats.

Souvenirs may be shipped directly to Northampton. Materials should be shipped to arrive between Monday and Wednesday of the week during which the class is reuniting.

CLASS HEADQUARTERS & HOSPITALITY

Class headquarters are in assigned houses and serve as a gathering place for hospitality, refreshments, messages, and class displays. Information and materials provided by the individual classes, such as the schedule of class events, souvenirs, and class books are distributed to classmates at the headquarters.

The college provides the following at headquarters:
- A cooler with ice, which will be replenished each day
- A refrigerator for use by classes in house kitchenettes. Please bear in mind that students are still in residence, so refreshments should be clearly marked as belonging to your class
- Permanent bulletin boards that may be used to display materials
- Four (4) six-foot tables with white tablecloths and four (4) folding chairs
- One easel, one flipchart (class must provide markers)
- A piano (usually)
- A standard audio-visual package: MP3 dock/speakers, a laptop, and a TV monitor or screen

To support the college’s sustainability efforts and eliminate waste, classes have access to filtered water in house dining rooms or kitchenettes. We encourage alumnae to bring a refillable water bottle.

The Smith Fund provides the following items:
- A large poster that lists donors in the class and markers so donors at Reunion can add their names
- An In Memoriam listing
- Gift envelopes and information regarding fundraising challenges that pertain to the class

Classes are responsible for supplying:
- All refreshments and associated supplies, including coffeemaker, dishes, coffee cups, napkins, and associated serving pieces (urns, pitchers, etc.)
- Class banner, to be hung outside the headquarters
- Decorations, which may be as elaborate as your Reunion theme allows or as simple as photos of classmates and class memorabilia
- Basic supplies: masking tape, adhesive tape, “frog” tape, push pins, tacks, paperclips, rubber bands, pens, pencils, markers, notepads, paper, message pads, stapler. Use of Scotch Tape or another adhesive product is prohibited on any surface

All other items for headquarters are the responsibility of the class. Do not plan on using any materials or decorations that are flammable.

Class Locker
Your class locker, located in the basement of the Alumnae House, likely contains class memorabilia and material from previous Reunions. It can be accessed when the Alumnae House is open.
Headquarter Set-up and Dismantling

Houses open at 10 a.m. on Thursday for headquarter set-up. Student ambassadors will box the contents of your class locker and Facilities Management will transport the items to your headquarters.

Class headquarters must be dismantled by 1 p.m. on Sunday, and any items to be returned to the class locker must be boxed and clearly marked (no more than 1 large box). Facilities Management will transport these materials back to the Alumnae House on Monday following Reunion weekend.

Any material to be donated by your class to the College Archives must also be clearly marked and boxed separately. Be sure to coordinate this donation directly with the College Archives.

Liquor Laws

Liquor laws in Massachusetts are stringent and the liability issues are broad; be careful in all situations where alcohol is present. If your class provides any beverage containing alcohol in your class headquarters, and someone has an accident or incident as a result of consuming beverages provided at class headquarters, the provider of the alcohol can be held liable. If you, as Reunion Chair, purchased the alcohol, you could be held liable for any damages or injury under Massachusetts State Law.

Ideas for class headquarters (with thanks to the class of 1967):

- A digital photo frame to display both current photos and those from your time at Smith
- A giant crossword puzzle of Smith factoids on an erasable white board
- A timeline of national/international events that occurred during your years on campus
- A class trivia contest on a white board
- A show of snapshots from prior Reunions
While the college has a robust program in place for the entire weekend, classes may plan activities for their classmates within the framework of the college schedule. Specific time slots will be identified for classes to do programming.

Space

Campus space for class programs and events will be assigned by the college based on historical registration trends for both the specific Reunion being celebrated (e.g. the 50th Reunion) and individual classes (e.g. the class of 1969), as well as programming planned by each class. In consideration of fire and occupancy codes, the college may need to relocate an event or activity based on registration numbers.

Classes must request space for their class programming in the fall preceding your Reunion. Requests submitted after the due date will likely not be fulfilled.

Audio-Visual Equipment

Smith College Educational Technology Services (ETS) can generally provide most equipment needed for class programs, such as

- Digital projectors, screens
- PC or Mac laptop
- DVD players, CD player
- Free-standing and podium microphones

All equipment requests must be sent to the Office of Alumnae Relations by the due date. ETS staff may be available to assist alumnae with equipment.

Dinner Programming

The college will provide a podium and microphone at each dinner location to allow for announcements and brief remarks. Class programming, including PowerPoint presentations or those needing projection, CANNOT be accommodated.

After-dinner programming may be planned, but your class must move to a different venue for the program. If this is the case, the Reunion Chair should work with the Office of Alumnae Relations to find a suitable program space.

A Capella Group

For the past few years, the Office of Alumnae Relations has invited a student a cappella group to be the official singing group for Reunions. The group will be available to sing at your class social hours or dinners, and will charge your class directly. The a cappella group will be selected in the fall prior to your Reunion, and Reunion Chairs will receive their contact information at that time.

Class Programming Suggestions

- Brief 10-minute TED Talk-like stories
- Morning yoga class led by a classmate
- Scavenger hunt
- Book discussion with classmate authors
- Presentation by a notable alumna from your class
- Class survey results
- Panel discussion with classmates
Class Meeting
At some point during Reunion weekend, a class meeting must be held.

Your class meeting is a time to:
- elect/ratify a new slate of officers
- recognize individuals who have volunteered for the class in the past five years
- recruit house reps for your next Reunion

The class President presides over the class meeting. Please refer to the Guide for Class Presidents on our website for more details.
ALUMNAE PARADE

For many alumnae, the most meaningful part of Reunion is the Alumnae Parade.

The first official parade was held in 1909. Although alumnae now dress uniformly in white, earlier classes had varied, colorful and sometimes quite elaborate costumes. Colored ribbons now differentiate the Reunion classes. The class of 1905 was the first to carry “placards,” and by 1915 these signs were a regular feature, “hailed with appreciative applause and laughter all along the march.”

Parade Guidelines

- All marchers should wear white. Several members of the class may choose to march at the head of the class dressed in gym uniforms or other attire worn by the class as undergraduates.
- Alumnae should wear ribbons in their class color, distributed at registration at the Alumnae House. Class ribbons should be worn from the right shoulder to the left hip.

Many classes choose items in their class color that may be worn at the Parade. A list of Class Colors is available on the Reunion website.

Parade Signs

- Parade signs must be submitted to and approved by the Office of Alumnae Relations. Signs should convey the general class Reunion theme and be brief and clever — generally four lines of approximately four words each is effective.
- The college will have signs made prior to Reunion and delivered to the parade lineup location. All signs are single-sided.
- The cost of the signs is included in the administrative fee charged by the college, which will be withheld from the class registration fees before they are disbursed after Reunion.
- Only signs approved by and produced through the college are permitted in the parade.
- The number of signs should be determined by the estimated number of classmates who will be marching, generally no more than one sign to every twenty marchers.

When considering wording, please remember that alumnae of many ages, as well as graduating seniors, their families, and guests will see them. Wording should be respectful of and non-offensive to all regardless of age, ethnicity, religion, sexual orientation, gender identity, race, and/or political affiliation.
COMMUNICATIONS

College Communications
The college oversees the design and production of all Reunion correspondence that comes from Smith, both printed and electronic.

- A Save-the-Date email and subsequent postcard is mailed to all active alumnae in reuniting classes and Reunion observers during the fall prior to Reunion.
- A Reunion Booklet is mailed to all active alumnae in Reunion classes in February, and is followed by an email announcing that registration has opened. The booklet includes Reunion highlights and instructions for registering online.
- A Reunion program is distributed to alumnae as they arrive on campus.

Website and Social Media
The Reunion Resources webpage is updated frequently and includes detailed Reunion information, schedules for both weekends, travel information, housing details, family activities, updates, and a link to online registration. This is the go-to place for Reunion details.

Class Communications
We suggest regular correspondence and updates in the Reunion year through broadcast emails and the use of class websites and social media platforms. Many classes have Facebook pages where Reunion teams share plans and classmates can connect before Reunion, thereby building even more enthusiasm. Utilize class communications to highlight Reunion plans and reminisce about your years at Smith.

In all of your correspondence, please encourage your classmates to update their email addresses and other contact information at alumnaerecords@smith.edu.

Class Newsletters
We recommend that class Presidents send at least one newsletter to their classmates each year, and three newsletters during their Reunion year. Reunion Chairs will determine format and contents of Reunion communications in consultation with the class President.

Electronic Newsletters
Electronic newsletters are free, and sent by an OAR staff member. To send an electronic/broadcast email newsletter, contact your OAR staff liaison.

Print Newsletters
Very few classes continue to produce print newsletters in favor of more economical and timely electronic communications. If you remain committed to sending a print newsletter, you may work with a designer/print shop of your choosing or contact Paradise Copies in Northampton (413-585-0414). Our liaison at Paradise Copies coordinates the design, printing, mailing, and billing of your newsletter, as your local printer should do.

A link to the formatted version of your printed newsletter can be included in a broadcast email to your classmates with email addresses. This is a cost-effective way to communicate with all of your classmates.

Newsletter guidelines and sample class newsletters may be found on the website.
Class Newsletter Schedule

Summer/Fall Newsletter
What to include:

- Report from Reunion Chairs who observed Reunion 2019
- 2020 Reunion dates, theme, and logo
- Class officers and Reunion committee names with contact information
- Call for volunteers to work on a committee
- Upcoming mini-Reunions dates and locations
- Preliminary Reunion schedule and plans
- How to update contact information with the college: forward updates (along with their full name and class year) to alumnaerecords@smith.edu.
- Links to class website and Facebook page

Suggestions:

- Include a class Reunion survey — What have classmates been doing since graduation or the last Reunion? Most classes use www.surveymonkey.com for online surveys with great success
- Consider adding a mini-questionnaire to your class website a year before Reunion, to help with overall Reunion planning

Winter Newsletter
What to include:

- Preliminary schedule of events planned by both the college and your class
- A brief update from each member of your Reunion planning team, including fundraising goals
- Registration deadlines (clearly specified)
- Requests for items to display at class headquarters (letters/photos from those who cannot attend, class memorabilia, etc.)
- Encourage classmates to register and visit the Reunion web page frequently for updates
- A piece from the class nominating chair

Suggestions:

- Include a list of lost classmates, with a request for contact information
- To get an early sense of potential attendance, ask classmates to indicate whether they plan to attend Reunion

Spring Newsletter
What to include:

- More detailed Reunion plans and last-minute details
- Encourage classmates to register before late fees apply for meals (usually around mid-April)
- Request of nomination for new class officers
- Reminder of things to pack
News from Smith
Good communication is key to creating informed and effective ambassadors for Smith, as all alumnae are. Your efforts in spreading the word about Smith and your own class are much appreciated.

There are a number of Smith sites and communications vehicles already in place and updated regularly from which you can draw news and information to cut, paste, and share with classmates.

Go to https://www.smith.edu/about-smith/smith-glance.

Class Book or Directory
Class books are generally published for the 50th milestone Reunion, serving as a remembrance for classmates and to generate enthusiasm, often translating into a decision to attend Reunion. The Executive Committee of the class should decide well in advance of Reunion whether or not to publish a class book. The class Reunion book is an expensive undertaking both in terms of money and time for the class.

Classes should budget carefully and plan years ahead; decide after the 40th Reunion, for example, that a class book will be produced for the 50th to allow for adequate accumulation of funds in the class treasury.

Class directories can be a cost-effective alternative to publishing a Reunion class book, but be warned: they are out-of-date almost immediately. If you decide to produce a class directory, the Office of Alumnae Relations can provide a class list.

Confidentiality of Alumnae Information
Alumnae names, contact information, and biographical information are entrusted to the college by each individual alumna. This information is confidential and protected.

Permission should be obtained by individual alumnae classes to use names and addresses from the college database for Reunion books and/or class directories (via class book questionnaires). Any part of any confidential alumnae information, as released to class officers or their designated representatives, may only be reproduced or transmitted in any form with the consent of the class officer or the Office of Alumnae Relations.
REUNION REGISTRATION

The Office of Alumnae Relations collects all registration, housing, and meal fees associated with Reunion. Alumnae register online beginning in February.

Housing
The college assigns all Reunion housing as part of the registration process. Alumnae and guests will be housed with their reuniting classmates in multiple houses assigned to the class. It is important to remind classmates that seniors and many undergraduates are still in residence in most houses through both Reunion weekends, and the number of rooms available will dictate how many houses are assigned for each class, as well as their proximity to each other. This also makes it impossible for the college to house alumnae by senior house. Housing will be located in or near class headquarters, which is the main gathering place for alumnae.

The Reunion registration form includes a field to indicate housing needs for those with mobility impairments.

Houses open at 4 p.m. on Thursday of each weekend. Housing is not available for anyone arriving before Thursday night of each weekend.

Housing Fee
On-campus housing is $150* per bed, for three nights (Thursday, Friday, and Saturday) or any portion thereof. This fee cannot be prorated. Alumnae Association Life Members will receive a $25 discount off the on-campus housing fee. Breakfast is included in the housing package for registered alumnae and guests staying in assigned college houses.

*Fees may increase slightly for Reunion 2020

Student residences HAVE:
- Single beds and single rooms (some doubles are available and used for families and/or couples). Guests are accommodated in the student residences whenever possible. No special restroom arrangements are made for male guests.
- Two to four flights of stairs
- Rooms that may be warm or cool, depending on unpredictable New England weather in May
- Community bathrooms (please remind classmates to bring flip-flops or slippers for going to and from the bathroom/shower)
- Noise (depending upon other residents in the house)
- Some have elevators (Chase, Comstock, Cutter and Ziskind, Duckett, Gillett, King, Lamont, Northrop, Wilder, and Scales Houses)
- Bedding (sheet, blanket, pillow/pillowcase)

Student residences DO NOT have:
- Air conditioning (except Cutter/Ziskind) or fans
- Bedside reading lamps
- Quilts (extra blankets may be available)
- Private bathrooms

The college does not issue keys to individual rooms. Encourage classmates to leave valuables at home. Please remember, and remind classmates, that student residences are not equivalent to a hotel or inn.
Meals
The Office of Alumnae Relations coordinates the details for all meals and menus in collaboration with Dining Services and a contracted caterer. Campus space for class meals will be assigned by the college based on historical registration trends for both the specific Reunion being celebrated and individual classes.

Do not contact other caterers to provide meals or receptions in any college facilities.

Meal Registration and Fees
Alumnae register for meals when they complete their online registration. Vegetarian and vegan alternatives, as well as special dietary needs, are addressed on an individual basis and can be indicated as part of the Reunion registration process.

Menus and pricing will be available on the Reunion website in fall 2019. Meal fees reflect the exact amount charged by the caterers and include no mark up. A $10* late fee is added to each meal ordered after the registration deadline (usually in late April). *Fees may increase slightly for Reunion 2020

The college makes no profit from Reunion or meal fees; in fact, the college subsidizes the price of Reunion registration for each alumna.

The caterers cannot guarantee that they will be able to accommodate last-minute registrants. Meals may be added during Reunion weekend only if enough provisions are available.

Encourage classmates to register early to avoid paying the late fee and to ensure the most accurate number of reservations possible. This will reduce the likelihood that classmates will be turned away at the last minute.

In support of sustainability practices on campus, the college will provide centerpieces for all meals, including class dinners. The costs of the centerpieces are included in the Administrative Fee, and will be withheld from the class registration fees before they are disbursed to the class.

Dinner Presentations
The college will provide a podium and microphone at each dinner location to allow for announcements and brief remarks. Class programming, including PowerPoint presentations or anything needing projection, CANNOT be accommodated.

Smith College Alcohol Serving Policy
Smith College Dining Services holds the liquor license for Smith College, and caterers are licensed to serve alcohol on campus; both carry liability insurance for this service. Under Massachusetts State Liquor Laws, these two groups are the only entities authorized to serve and sell alcohol on campus.

Liquor laws in Massachusetts are stringent and the liability issues are broad; be careful in all situations where alcohol is present. If your class provides any beverage containing alcohol in your class headquarters, and someone has an accident or incident as a result of consuming beverages provided at class headquarters, the provider of the alcohol can be held liable. If you, as Reunion Chair, purchased the alcohol, you could be held liable for any damages or injury under Massachusetts State Law.
REUNION FINANCES

Role of the Class Treasurer
The class Treasurer, in consultation with the class Reunion Chair, should ensure that the class treasury is adequate to meet the financial obligations of Reunion. She must ensure that the class does not incur a loss with Reunion and that the class will have the financial resources to support Reunion items such as a class book (if applicable), print newsletters (if desired), and giveaways/novelty items. The class Treasurer will authorize payment of all class bills and volunteer reimbursements. A sample Expense Report form is available at the end of this guide.

Class Registration Fee
This mandatory fee, set by your class Reunion committee, helps the class fund the cost of its Reunion program. Reunion registration fees range from $15 to $100 depending on the size of the class, what Reunion is being celebrated, and the state of the treasury. Guests are generally not charged the class registration fee.

No portion of the class registration fees can be used for the class Reunion gift to The Smith Fund.

The following Reunion expenses are the responsibility of the class and should be covered in the class registration fee:

- Costs associated with Reunion Chairs observing the Reunion prior to yours
- Meals for guests of the class (e.g. faculty invited to class dinner, observers, etc.)
- Reimbursements to officers for class business expenses (conference calls, postage)
- Headquarters expenses such as decorations, supplies, refreshments, rental equipment
- Class book (if applicable)
- Mementos/souvenirs/giveaways
- Print newsletter fees
- Administrative Fee: $7/alumna (Reunion 2019). This fee covers the cost of nametags and lanyards for alumnae and guests, parade signs, table centerpieces, and Friday and Saturday dinners for student ambassadors.

College Fees
The college charges:
- A Reunion registration fee of $30* (charged to all alumnae). This mandatory fee helps the college defray the costs associated with Reunion. This fee is waived for guests and children
*Fee may increase slightly for Reunion 2020

The Office of Alumnae Relations collects all registration, housing, and meal fees associated with Reunion. After paying all catering bills and other fees owed, class registration fees are transferred to the class’s Smith-held treasury account, minus expenses owed, by the end of June following Reunion. A sample Class Disbursement letter is available at the end of this guide.

Resources
- Refer to the Sample Class Reunion Budget Worksheet at the end of this guide to help you set your budget
- Request a copy of Reunion budget from the class preceding yours
- Download Expense Report Forms from our website
Reunion Expenses Reimbursement
Your Reunion revenue, generated from your class registration fees (minus applicable deductions), will be deposited into your Smith-held treasury account. All of your future class expenses — your print newsletters (if you send these), Smith-related travel reimbursements, Reunion and mini-Reunion vendor payments — will be authorized by the class President or Treasurer, and handled internally at the college.

The most common Reunion-related expenses include refreshments for class headquarters, class officers travel costs to Reunion training and/or class meetings, souvenirs/giveaways purchase, and more.

The class Treasurer and/or class President must approve the reimbursement.

How to submit Volunteer Expense Reimbursement

- Submit a Class Treasury Expense Reimbursement Form, available on the Alumnae Relations Tools for Class Officers web page: http://alumnae.smith.edu/classes/classes/tools-for-classes/
- Send all ORIGINAL corresponding receipts and invoices with your completed Expense Reimbursement Form to your liaison in the Office of Alumnae Relations. Smith College’s controller does not accept credit card statements as proper documentation in lieu of receipts or invoices. You can either print and mail your hard copy form and receipts/invoices or send them electronically as email attachments
- A check will be mailed to you

Please note that if your classmates submit reimbursement requests during the college’s busiest months, April through mid-June, there may be a delay in processing those reimbursements.

Paying Vendors
For your convenience, your vendors for giveaways/regalia/flowers can send their invoices directly to your class liaison in the Office of Alumnae Relations. If this is their first time invoicing Smith College, please ask them to include a completed W-9 tax identification form http://www.irs.gov/pub/irs-pdf/f9.pdf with the invoice.
OTHER REUNION INFORMATION

Observers
As is tradition, the Reunion Chair of the hosting class should invite the observer to all of your class activities and she should be a guest of the class for Friday and Saturday dinners. The observer’s class is responsible for paying travel, all other meal fees, the college Reunion registration fee, and the accommodation expenses associated with returning to Northampton to observe Reunion. Observers do not pay the class registration fee for the class they are observing.

In general, classes should be prepared to host up to two observers from the class following theirs; if the observing class has more than two Reunion Chairs, the observing Reunion Chair’s class treasury should cover their meal costs.

Please remember to have all class–specific information available for these observers. Space permitting, observers are housed with the class they are observing.
After paying all catering, parade sign, and other fees owed, the college transfers class registration fee disbursements to your class's account at the college.

The Office of Alumnae Relations asks classes to provide samples of class souvenirs and any other class materials, such as class books or directories, songbooks, or other print materials as examples for classes who follow yours. Please send samples to Annie Croteau, assistant director for reunions, classes, and clubs.

Following Reunion, the Reunion Chair should complete the following tasks by the dates indicated below:

- Submit class slate. Be sure the class slate has been submitted to the Office of Alumnae Relations, preferably prior to or during Reunion, but no later than June 15, so that new officers who must receive information about their new job can be coded in the college database.

- Submit a Reunion Report. This should be sent to the Office of Alumnae Relations, your successor, and the Reunion Chair of the class following yours. Please see the suggested guidelines below for writing the report. Your report should be submitted by July 15. This report should be a synopsis of your Reunion planning experience, from the time you were elected to Reunion. You will find a Reunion Report Form in the appendix.

- Submit Reunion Financial Report (sample in the appendix of this guide). Work with your class treasurer to close the books on Reunion and be sure the Treasurer submits the Reunion Financial Report to the Office of Alumnae Relations by July 15.

- Organize files. Prepare and turn records over to the incoming Reunion Chair by July 15.

- Send memorabilia to archives. Smith College Archives is eager to receive copies of class Reunion photos, print materials, and other memorabilia. Please note that once catalogued in the archives, the materials cannot be retrieved for use during a future Reunion, though copies can be requested. Visit the College Archives page for more details.

Re: Reunion Class Disbursement

Dear Class Officers,

Your Smith-held class treasury has received a deposit in the amount of $4,120.00, representing the revenue received from your class reunion registration fees, less adjustments.

Reunion Revenue Itemization

Reunion Registration Fees received: 100 alums @ $50.00 $ 5,000.00
Administrative Fee: 100 alumnae @ $7 -$ 700.00
(Includes nametags for alumnae, parade signs, table centerpieces, dinners for class ambassadors)

Friday dinner for two class observers ($45.00 x 2) -$ 90.00
Saturday dinner for two class observers ($45.00 x 2) -$ 90.00

Total Class Revenue: $4,120.00
CLASS COLORS

The official color of Smith College is white, hence the white dresses worn on Ivy Day and in the Alumnae Parade. Traditionally, white is trimmed with gold.

In addition, each class has its own color, and the colors repeat every four years. This system began in the 1880s when all sports competitions were class oriented and each class had team uniforms in its own color. White, with its poetic overtones of purity, is linked to the official seal of the college, which features the motto “To Virtue, Knowledge.”
