Smith Travel Presents

THE KINGDOM OF BHUTAN

With Jamie Hubbard
Yehan Numata Professor of Buddhist Studies

OCTOBER 29 - NOVEMBER 7, 2015
Dear Smith Alumnae and Friends,

It is with great enthusiasm that Smith Travel is offering a trip to one of the most unique and isolated locations in the world; the Kingdom of Bhutan. This journey, accompanied by Jamie Hubbard, PhD., Professor and Chair of Religion at Smith and Yehan Numata Professor of Buddhist Studies, will take you through the last living Buddhist kingdom where the results of “Gross National Happiness” are immediately evident to the visitor. It is a place where the vitality of traditional culture and the purity and beauty of the natural environment make this one of the most appealing countries in the world. Facing the daunting challenges of modernization and globalization, Bhutan strives to balance economic development with the values of maintaining the integrity of spiritual and cultural traditions and good governance.

Throughout this journey we are also fortunate to have our national guide Mr. Kinga Dechen – recognized as one of the world’s top 10 guides, travel with us!

I hope you will join us on this program. To make your reservation, please call Smith Travel toll free at 800-225-2029.

With warm regards,

Elizabeth Bigwood, Director, Smith Travel

Smith Lecturer

This tour will be accompanied by Jamie Hubbard, Yehan Numata Professor of Buddhist Studies, Director of the Concentration in Buddhist Studies, and Chair of the Religion Department at Smith College where he has taught since 1985. His main work is in ancient Chinese and Japanese Buddhism, primarily dealing with the relationship between text, rhetoric, and institution, particularly in the social-political realm involving questions of heresy and orthodoxy. Publications include The Manuscript Remains and Other Materials for the Study of the Sans-chieh Movement (2003), Absolute Delusion, Perfect Buddhahood: The Rise and Fall of a Chinese Heresy (2001), and Pruning the Bodhi Tree: The Storm Over Critical Buddhism (1997). He just finished a translation of a 6th century commentary on the Vimalakīrti-nirdesā-sūtra. Further afield, he organized the Buddhism in Mongolia: Rebirth and Transformation conference held at Smith College in 2009, and a conference on Technologies of Awareness: Buddhism and the New Mind Sciences in 2010. He also enjoys the Burmese meditation traditions as they have been translated into the modern world in the practice of vipassana (insight meditation), mindfulness-based stress reduction, and the like.

DAY 1 | OCTOBER 29 | THIMPHU

Travelers must be ready to depart from Bangkok this morning at 6:30 a.m. bound for Paro, Bhutan. Upon arrival in Bhutan we will transfer to the capital city of Thimphu for lunch and an afternoon of sightseeing to include the colorful Memorial Chorten and the Painting School. We will also take a stroll down Thimphu’s main street lined with shops and restaurants. This is a colorful scene with local people wearing their traditional “ghos” (men) and “kiras” (women) and red-robed monks gathering along the way.

Jumolhari Hotel (L,D)

DAY 2 | OCTOBER 30 | THIMPHU

This morning we will meet with Bhutan’s first female civil engineer, Ms. Dorji Choden, the country’s Minister of Work and Human Settlements to discuss the challenges the country of “Gross National Happiness” is facing in terms of growing urban infrastructure and development. From here we continue on to the famous Textile Museum, which is operated under the auspices of the fourth Queen Mother. We will enjoy lunch at the Folk Heritage Museum. In the afternoon we have scheduled a visit with the RENEW Organization (Respect, Educate, Nurture and Empower Women) of Bhutan.

Jumolhari Hotel (B, L, D)

DAY 3 | OCTOBER 31 | PUNAKHA

The day begins with a visit to the Bhutan Nuns Foundation which plays a large role throughout Bhutan in empowering an educating Bhutanese girls and women. Afterwards, we depart Thimphu for Punakha, stopping en route on top of Dochu-la Pass where thousands of colorful prayer flags are hung between the trees. On a clear day you can see the entire Himalayan mountain range. Afternoon sightseeing in Punakha will focus on the famous Punakha Dzong, home to the monastic and administrative body of the region. Punakha Dzong is considered to be the most beautiful in the country and served as the venue for the coronation of the current young king. Later in the afternoon as the rolling hills of Punakha Valley are dipped in the golden hue of the setting sun, we will take a leisurely stroll to the Temple of Divine Madman for a breathtaking view of the surroundings.

Zangdopelri Hotel (B, L, D)

DAY 4 | NOVEMBER 1 | TRONGSA

This will be a day of traveling as we journey east across two mountain passes and with a stop at Chendibji Chorten for a picnic lunch. Our destination, the charming town of Trongsa is set high in the mountains and has the feel of a medieval village. Sherubling Lodge (B, L, D)
DAY 5 | NOVEMBER 2 | BUMTHANG VALLEY | JAKAR
A short morning drive will take us to Jakar and the Bumthang Valley, the cultural and historic heart of the kingdom. We will spend the day visiting some of the valley’s most sacred temples and monasteries where local people gather, make their offerings and turn the prayer wheels. Here, we might even be able to attend one of the chanting ceremonies which often take place inside the monasteries at the end of the day. Delicious home cooked meals are served at the Mountain Lodge where we will settle in for three nights. Mountain Lodge (B,L,D)

DAY 6 | NOVEMBER 3 | BUMTHANG VALLEY | JAKAR
The first stop this morning will be at Membarsho “Fire Lake” where the surroundings are covered with prayer flags and small clay offerings called tse tse are left behind by the local worshippers. It is said that secret treasures were once buried in the ground of the lake and the site has become a popular pilgrimage destination. A vegetarian lunch will be served at one of Bhutan’s largest nunneries where we will have a chance to interact with the nuns and learn more about their daily lives. Many of them will speak English and are happy to talk with you! The day concludes as we witness a Buddhist debating ceremony in the grounds of a nearby monastery. Mountain Lodge (B,L,D)

DAY 7 | NOVEMBER 4 | BUMTHANG VALLEY | JAKAR
Today will visit Ura, a tiny village of about 30 houses where it feels as though time has stood still. We will spend time in the local village school, with the students and headmaster and will join them for lunch which we will donate to the school. Remainder of the day at leisure. Mountain Lodge (B, L, D)

DAY 8 | NOVEMBER 5 | PARO
We fly to Paro where our sightseeing will include a tour of the Paro National Museum which houses a magnificent collection of thangkas and offers a good insight into the complexity of Bhutanese iconography. We will also spend time at the Paro Dzong and the wonderful ancient temple of Avalokitshvara at Kyichu, one of the oldest in the country. Uma Resort (B, L, D)

DAY 9 | NOVEMBER 6 | PARO
Today marks the highlight of our trip... an excursion to the spectacularly located “Taktsang” also known as Tiger’s Nest, and one of the most venerated pilgrimage sites of the Himalayan world. It clings to sheer cliffs 3,000 feet above the valley and a visit to Taktsang is the dream of a lifetime for the devout. We return to Paro in the afternoon for a stroll through town. Our farewell dinner will be held in a tiny local restaurant owned by our good friend Ms. Sonam Tropel who makes the best tomato soup and ginger chicken in the country! Uma Resort (B, L, D)

DAY 10 | NOVEMBER 7 | DEPARTURE
The flight to Bangkok departs this morning scheduled to arrive in the late afternoon. (B)

Trip Extensions: Since your gateway city in Asia is Bangkok, we would be happy to arrange for a private trip extension to Southeast Asia including, Laos, Cambodia, Vietnam or Myanmar.

Note: Round trip airfare between Bangkok and Paro is included in the trip price. We can also arrange for flights in and out of Bhutan via Delhi, Calcutta, Mumbai, Kathmandu and Singapore. However these flights are not daily. Your trip price will be adjusted accordingly should you choose different flights in and out of Paro, Bhutan.
