6 REASONS TO RETURN FOR REUNION

1. Immerse Yourself in Paradise . . . Again  From the botanic garden to Paradise Pond, the Smith campus is a sanctuary for Smithies seeking to reinvigorate their souls. The only way to experience it is to come back and see it for yourself. Don’t wait! Register for Reunion today!

2. Watch Women’s History Unfold All Around You  With generations of Smith women marching in step, the alumnae and Ivy Day parades are powerful symbols of women’s lives and the unique connections that exist among Smith women. Wear your whites and be a part of these beautiful time-honored traditions that lift the spirit.

3. Strengthen Your Connections  The power of the global Smith community is on full display during Reunion. Come back and connect with classmates and friends from around the world. It’s the perfect opportunity to network with other women who share your interests. You’ll return home with new friends and new contacts.

4. Take Some Time to Stop and Smell the Tulips—and Orchids—and Ferns  The Lyman Plant House is the perfect springtime destination and a favorite spot for Reunion revelers. Step inside and check out the latest plant exhibitions and new arrivals. Afterward, walk on over to the new Happy Garden, adjacent to the President’s House. Stroll its paths or take a seat and admire the view of Paradise Pond.

5. Come Back to Class  Miss the intellectual excitement of a Smith classroom? There are plenty of panel discussions and faculty-led sessions throughout the weekend to satisfy your hunger for knowledge. And on Friday morning President Kathleen McCartney will share her plans for making the Smith experience the most powerful form of a liberal arts education.

6. Dance the Night Away!  One of the newest—and most popular—Reunion traditions is the Saturday night dance party. Grab a glow stick and join hundreds of Smithies on the dance floor as a DJ spins iconic songs that will take you back to your youth.
