Aboard the Exclusively Chartered Deluxe Small Ship
M.Y. VARIETY VOYAGER

October 14 to 22, 2017
Dear Smith Alumnae and Friends:

Join us on this exclusive small ship voyage along the splendid coastlines of the French and Italian Rivieras and their stunning landscapes, ancient villages and idyllic islands that became a favorite retreat for artists, writers, nobility and gourmards. Experience the dynamic history of contending civilizations and their legacy—some of the world’s greatest art and architecture—and travel through the timeless cradle of the Renaissance between two great cultural capitals.

Cruise from Rome to Barcelona with one port of call each day and opportunities to visit five UNESCO World Heritage sites on this unique itinerary featuring small, off-the-beaten-path destinations along with incredible legendary ports. Visit Carcassonne’s French medieval fortifications and the awe-inspiring Italian cliffside villages of the Cinque Terre. Take in the natural beauty of Sardinia’s dazzling Costa Smeralda, experience the stylish glamour of St. Tropez, explore the legendary principality of chic Monaco, walk through historic Marseille and its vibrant sixth-century Vieux Port, enjoy Corsica’s ancient port of Bonifacio and choose to admire the Renaissance treasures of Florence or the historic Tuscan monuments of Lucca and Pisa.

Travel in style aboard the exclusively chartered M.Y. VARIETY VOYAGER, a deluxe small ship that carries only 72 guests, while enjoying the benefits afforded by small-ship cruising—exemplary service and a specially designed itinerary featuring several ports only accessible by small ship.

This program is a great travel value, including all shore excursions and complimentary alcoholic and nonalcoholic beverages aboard ship. It will sell out quickly, so book now while space and Early Booking Savings are still available!

Sincerely,

Faculty Lecturer
On this program, a Smith faculty member will present lectures and lead discussions that will enhance your educational experience. As this brochure goes to press, the faculty representative who will accompany the program has not yet been confirmed. But we wanted to mail this brochure in time for you to make plans to participate. All Smith lecturers share a love for both teaching and travel. Their presence ensures that Smith-sponsored journeys are not only a pleasant travel experience but also intellectually rewarding.
The sparkling turquoise waters and emerald coasts of the French and Italian Rivieras have long enticed the Greeks, Etruscans, Phoenicians, Romans and Germanic peoples. The beau monde began flocking to these seaside towns as de rigueur of the 19th-century “Grand Tour” to rejuvenate in their healing climates. The rise of Italian nobility—particularly the Savoys, Italy’s ruling family from 1861 to 1946, and the Grimaldis, the lineage of the current Prince of Monaco— influenced the development of these coastal gems nestled between the Alps and the sea; the Côte d’Azur’s radiant quality of light captivated Pablo Picasso, Henri Matisse and Marc Chagall, distinctly influencing each artist’s use of brilliant colors; and the glamour of the region attracted great writers like F. Scott Fitzgerald and Ernest Hemingway. Come experience firsthand the astonishing beauty and allure of the Rivieras!

Rome, Italy
Once the center of a vast empire, today this UNESCO World Heritage Site is the historic heart of Italy. From the iconic Colosseum and the Vatican to the Spanish Steps and the Catacombs, the remains of ancient Rome continue to astonish visitors.

Costa Smeralda, Sardinia
Sardinia’s Costa Smeralda (Emerald Coast) features remote seaside villages, elegant villas, a rugged landscape rising from exquisite white sand beaches, and azure waters plied by sleek luxury yachts. Anchor at Golfo Aranci, and during your panoramic tour, visit the well-preserved granite Nuraghe Albucciu, one of the Bronze-Age defensive fortresses unique to the island of Sardinia.

Bonifacio, Corsica, France
Dock below the ancient town of Bonifacio, which overlooking the sparkling harbor atop sheer white limestone cliffs at the southern tip of the island of Corsica. Often referenced by historians as a site portrayed in Homer’s Odyssey, this beautiful port’s fundamentally French character bears a strong Italian imprint, manifested in the islanders’ French-Italian dialect. Transfer by small train for the walking tour through the incredibly picturesque medieval citadel and Old Town.
Picturesque at every angle, Italy's colorful Cinque Terre is a lovely sight from the sea, while each of its five terraced villages offers breathtaking views of the Ligurian coastline from the shore.

Stroll the Rue des Deux-Empereurs, where Charles V and Napoleon once lodged, and see the Gothic-style Church of St-Dominique and the famous Grain de Sable limestone formation.

Florence, Italy
Enjoy the rolling Tuscan landscape of vineyards and cypress trees en route to Florence, birthplace of the Renaissance. This iconic UNESCO World Heritage Site is a treasure trove of unparalleled achievements in art, architecture and literature. Admire Michelangelo's David, considered one of his greatest masterpieces; Brunelleschi's soaring dome at the Duomo of Florence; and Ghiberti's moving “Doors of Paradise,” the magnificent bronze-cast entryway to the Baptistry of San Giovanni, depicting scenes from the Old Testament.

Pisa/Lucca
From the port city of Livorno, a scenic drive whisks you to the beautifully preserved medieval university city of Pisa and the historic town of Lucca. Pisa’s famous Piazza dei Miracoli, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, showcases the legendary leaning tower where Galileo Galilei is said to have conducted some of his first experiments with gravity; the impressive 11th-century Duomo and the largest baptistery in Italy. Lucca’s intact Renaissance city walls are now a promenade for pedestrians, and its elaborate 11th-century Cattedrale di San Martino is still an important symbol of the city.

Cinque Terre
From Porto Venere’s small harbor, board a private boat cruise and dock in two villages of the famous, picturesque Cinque Terre. This UNESCO World Heritage Site is a series of charming, colorful fishing villages that cling to remote cliffs overlooking the Ligurian Sea. Discover the spectacular nuances of Riomaggiore and Vernazza, linked by walking paths that offer marvelous views of the charming coves, hidden beaches and terraced vineyards that produce the famous dessert wine Sciacchetrà.

Portofino
Portofino is the perfect village for a leisurely afternoon on the Italian Riviera. You may choose to visit the 17th-century San Giorgio Church, home to the relics of this legendary dragon-slaying saint; stroll the pedestrian-only lanes; or sip a cappuccino on the terrace of an outdoor café.

Monte Carlo, Monaco
The principality of Monaco’s dazzling historic district, Monte Carlo offers an intoxicating mixture of princely sights and intrigue and is famous for its Grand Casino. Admire the legendary belle-époque architecture and enjoy a walking tour on the historic Rock of Monaco. See the changing of the guards at the Prince’s Palace, home of Europe’s longest-reigning dynasty, and visit the neo-Romanesque St. Nicholas Cathedral, where Princess Grace is interred.

St. Tropez, France
The first town to be liberated on the French Riviera during World War II, St. Tropez became a glamorous resort destination for international jet setters and fashion’s elite, including Coco Chanel, Elsa Schiaparelli and Brigitte Bardot. Winding lanes with brightly colored bougainvillea dotting windowsills, chic streetside cafés and impressive yachts moored in its brilliant blue harbor provide the perfect, picturesque setting to enjoy an evening at leisure.

Marseille
Nearly three millennia of maritime heritage thrive in Marseille, the 2013 European Capital of Culture and a natural port where ships have docked since Greek settlers first arrived in 600 B.C. Enjoy a panoramic tour featuring the historical heart of the city, its Old Town, the majestic 19th-century Cathédrale de la Major,

---

The distinctive early-14th-century tower of the Palazzo Vecchio and Filippo Brunelleschi’s magnificent 15th-century dome are consummate symbols of Florence and the Renaissance.

The fantastic Notre Dame de la Garde with its neo-Byzantine interior and extraordinary city views from the grounds, and the Vieux Port (Old Port), which some consider to be the birthplace of Marseille. Drive on the picturesque Corniche Kennedy, a spectacular boulevard overlooking the sea and dedicated to the late United States president; and travel along the historic high street, Canébiere, built by Louis XIV in 1666.

Aix-en-Provence

Immerse yourself in the beautiful medieval city of Aix-en-Provence, located in the heart of France’s sun-drenched Provençal region and which perhaps captures best the quintessential élan of all that is Provence. Visit the Cathedral of Saint Sauveur, considered a national monument by the French, built in the Romanesque, Gothic and neo-Gothic architectural styles on the site of the first-century Roman Forum of Aix. Stroll through the Mazarin district and Old Aix, and enjoy the famous Cours Mirabeau, a classic, grand boulevard lined with plane trees and elegant 17th- and 18th-century townhouses.

Carcassonne

Settled on the former frontier between France and Spain along ancient trade routes linking the Atlantic Ocean with the Mediterranean Sea and the Iberian Peninsula, and occupied since the sixth century B.C., Carcassonne—the largest walled city in Europe—was fortified by the Romans, conquered by the Visigoths in the fifth century, captured by Persians in the seventh century, later invaded by Franks and overrun by Barbarians. Each of these civilizations left their indelible influence on the extraordinary architectural and artistic heritage of this city over the centuries. The medieval core of Carcassonne that remains today, La Cité, is an extraordinary UNESCO World Heritage Site. Walk La Cité’s cobblestone streets and visit the Romanesque-Gothic-style Basilica of Saints Nazarius and Celsus, featuring stained-glass windows from the 13th to 19th centuries; tour the medieval Château Comtal, and its impressive archaeological museum; and explore the captivating collection ranging from 16th- to 20th-century works of fine art in the Musée des Beaux Arts. Travel to the nearby Corbières Mountains to tour the well-preserved, 12th-century Cistercian Abbaye de Fontfroide.

Barcelona, Spain

The lively and beautiful neighborhoods of Barcelona are filled with Europe’s greatest concentration of Gothic architecture and the artistic treasures of Salvador Dalí, Antoni Gaudi and Pablo Picasso.
The exclusively chartered, deluxe small ship M.Y. Variety Voyager is fully air conditioned and features only 36 cabins. Launched in 2012, it provides an authentic small ship experience and can dock in smaller ports and inlets inaccessible to larger ships.

The ocean-view, stylishly appointed cabins are designed to accommodate two twin beds or one double bed and feature two windows, private marble-accented bathroom with shower, individual climate control, mini refrigerator, flat-screen satellite television, DVD player, music channels, safe, hair dryer and bathrobes.

Meals featuring Mediterranean and international cuisine are served alfresco or in single, unassigned seatings in the ship’s attractive dining room, where passengers can enjoy unobstructed views of the sweeping scenery and coastline through floor-to-ceiling windows. Complimentary alcoholic and nonalcoholic beverages are available throughout the cruise. Early-risers’ coffee, buffet breakfast, buffet lunch and a four-course dinner are served daily. House wine and beer are served with lunch and dinner.

Inviting public areas include a lounge and bar, library, shaded outdoor lounge and bar, sun deck and a mini-spa and fitness area. Wi-Fi Internet access and laundry service are available on board. There is no doctor aboard the ship.

The English-speaking, European crew provides courteous, professional service. The ship is fitted with state-of-the-art twin stabilizers and is meticulously maintained. It complies with the highest safety standards.
