YOUR CLASS'S REUNION PROGRAM

Watch for news from your class Reunion team about the exciting programming they have planned. Check your class website and social media sites for updates.

Contact your class Reunion chair listed on the Reunion website: alumnae.smith.edu/reunion2017.

REGISTRATION FEES

HOUSING

The campus housing package rate is $150 per single bed and includes breakfast. This fee cannot be prorated on a per-night basis. Housing is complimentary for classes celebrating their 70th to 80th Reunion.

If you need a disability-related accommodation or handicap access information, please contact the alumnae relations office at 413-585-2150 or at reunionregistration@smith.edu.

MEALS

Menus and pricing are available on our website. Meals are complimentary for classes celebrating their 65th to 80th Reunion.

Register by the April 26 deadline to be guaranteed a place in on-campus housing and at meals. Meal reservations will be accepted after April 26 on a space- and meal-available basis only (a $10 per meal late fee will apply).

COMPREHENSIVE REGISTRATION FEES

OFFICE OF ALUMNAE RELATIONS REGISTRATION FEE: $30 fee to help the college defray the costs associated with Reunion.

CLASS REGISTRATION FEE: Set by your class Reunion committee to help your class fund its Reunion program. This fee does not apply to the 65th Reunion class.

REFUND POLICY: Class and college registration fees are nonrefundable, and meal fees are nonrefundable after April 26.

PARKING

On-campus parking and shuttle service will be available throughout Reunion weekend.

7 REASONS TO RETURN FOR REUNION

- 1 Immerse Yourself in Paradise . . . Again From Chapin Lawn to the botanic garden to Paradise Pond, the Smith campus is a sanctuary for Smithies seeking to reinvigorate their souls. The only way to experience it is to come back and see it for yourself.
- 2 Watch Women's History Unfold All Around You With generations of Smith women marching in step, the alumnae and Ivy Day parades are powerful visual symbols of women's lives and the unique connections and shared history that exist among Smith women. Wear your whites and be a part of these beautiful, time-honored traditions that lift the spirit.
- 3 Widen Your World The power of the global Smith network is on full display during Reunion. Come back and connect with classmates and friends from around the world. It's the perfect opportunity to network with other women who share your interests. You'll return home with new friends and new contacts.
- 4 Take Some Time to Stop and Smell the Tulips—and Orchids—and Ferns The Lyman Plant House is the perfect springtime destination and a favorite spot for Reunion revelers. Step inside and check out the latest plant exhibitions and new arrivals. Afterward, walk on over to the new Happy Garden, adjacent to the President's House. Stroll its paths or take a seat and admire the view of Paradise Pond.
- 5 Come Back to Class Miss the intellectual excitement of a Smith classroom? Don't worry! There are plenty of workshops, panel discussions and faculty-led sessions throughout the weekend to satisfy your hunger for knowledge. And President Kathleen McCartney will share her vision for a 21st-century Smith.
- 6 Dance the Night Away! One of the newest—and most popular—Reunion traditions is the Saturday-night dance party. Grab a glow stick and join hundreds of Smithies on the dance floor as a DJ spins iconic songs that will take you back to your youth.
- 7 Take One Last Look at the Old Neilson The much-anticipated renovation of Neilson Library is scheduled to begin in the fall of 2017. Reunion is your chance to snap a few photos and walk through the old building one more time before it's transformed by Maya Lin and architects Shepley Bulfinch into a 21st-century library.
