Exploring the Languedoc
October 5th - 13th 2018

One of the strongest motivations to travel is the deep yearning we have to connect with the past. Some may explain this by an awareness of past lives, others may simply enjoy the thrill of entering an ancient building or standing in a timeless landscape where their imaginations ignite and conjure the past. If this is the experience you are seeking, there could be no better place to spend a week than in the mysterious and spellbinding Ariège. Set in the south-west of France, in the foothills of the Pyrenees, we have found the perfect setting for a week of time travel, the Château de Camon.

Charlemagne, on his return from harassing the Moors in Spain, put the village of Camon under the authority of Notre-Dame. By the middle of the 10th century a Benedictine Abbey was in place. Troubadours, crusaders, itinerant knights, Spanish princesses and persecuted Cathars passed through the region. The Abbey of Camon was an important sanctuary along the way and, by the 16th century, a fortified manor (château) had been built to secure the Abbey. The Château has now been offering comfort and tranquility to travelers for five hundred years! Vaulted ceilings, four-poster beds, beautiful fabrics and all the amenities of 21st-century living make the château both spine-tinglingly authentic and sumptuously cozy.

With the Château de Camon as our base for seven nights, each day we will set off to explore the antiquities of the Aude and Ariège regions. From the ruins of Cathar castles to the medieval grandeur of Carcassonne, it will be impossible to head home without feeling touched by the shadows of the past!

Friday, October 5th - Departure from your US gateway city. Overnight: Plane

Saturday, October 6th - Your arrival in Toulouse will be met by your Discover Europe representative for the short drive to the Château. The rest of the day is free to unpack, relax and begin exploring the neighborhood. This evening, the group will gather on the terrace for drinks before a welcome dinner party. (D) Overnight: Camon

Sunday, October 7th - This morning, those that are still feeling the effects of the long flights can relax at the Château or take a stroll around the village. The more adventurous can opt to get a serious dose of time travel! A half-mile walk along an uneven subterranean riverbed will take you back to the Magdalenian period (circa 11,000 BC) and to the vast chamber of the Grotte de Niaux. Leaping from the walls of the cave are the most beautiful images of horses, ibex, stags and bisons, some still as fresh as the day they were painted. These are among the best prehistoric paintings you will see anywhere in Europe. Meeting back in Camon at lunch time, we set off as a group for an afternoon excursion to the nearby town of Foix. We dine at the Château again this evening. (B, D) Overnight: Camon

Monday, October 8th - Enjoy a leisurely breakfast on the terrace overlooking the lovely gardens which are set against the distant Pyrenean peaks. The day continues with a three-mile journey to Mirepoix on market day. There will be time to explore one of France’s most exquisite medieval squares, and to enjoy a coffee at one of the many cafés. Weather permitting, we will have a picnic lunch at the nearby village of Roquefixade where we will take a walk to the medieval castle before heading to Montségur. The ruined castle, set high on a rocky crag, was the final refuge of the persecuted Cathars. In 1244, the Catholic Church carried out one of its worst ever atrocities; 225 Cathars, who refused to recant, were burnt on a communal pyre. There will be time to make the half-hour ascent to the castle for those who enjoy a hike. Alternatively, enjoy the wonderful views and reflect on the horrors of the past! Before returning to the Château, we will stop at the village museum. We return to the Château with time to relax by the pool, or enjoy a cocktail on the terrace, before we head to a local restaurant for dinner. (B, D) Overnight: Camon

Tuesday, October 9th - Weather permitting, we’ll head up into the high Pyrenees just across the border into Spain. First we’ll visit the charming town of Camprodon with its fortified bridge and romantic town square and then on to the tiny mountain village of Queralbs. Here, we will have lunch in a local inn and visit the church with its 11th-century fresco of Christ in Judgement. This afternoon we wend our way back down, through Ax-les-Thermes to Camon. Tonight, we dine together at the Château. (B, D) Overnight: Camon

Wednesday, October 10th - This morning we will cut across the heavenly Ariège countryside to the magical Romanesque Abbey of St. Hilaire. Then on to Limoux, famed for its Blanquette - a sparkling wine. There will be free time for shopping in La Place de la République in the beautiful heart of the old town before continuing to the fabulous Gayda vineyard where we will be welcomed for a gourmet lunch by Tim Ford, the head vintner (if available). After a leisurely lunch, we will tour the vineyard and estate, ending with a tasting of their excellent produce in the Vincœle (literally, wine school). Returning to Camon in mid-afternoon, your day is free - you can choose to eat at the hotel again or venture out to a local restaurant in nearby Mirepoix. (B, L) Overnight: Camon

Thursday, October 11th - If you had to choose one medieval fortress town to visit, Carcassonne would be it. Restored to perfection, you only need imagine fellow travelers dressed in sackcloth, doublet and hose, and you're back in the medieval world! We will visit the beautiful St. Nazaire church with some of the loveliest stained glass in France. Enjoy time to tour the inner fortress, Château Comtal, and wander the narrow alleyways. After time for lunch, we’ll return to Camon for a free evening to explore the village. (B) Overnight: Camon

Friday, October 12th - This morning we’ll head to the mountain-top village of Rennes-le-Château. A visit to the parish church will either spark or rejuvenate your interest in Dan Brown’s mysteries. The church is full of symbols and secret codes which may indicate that Abbé Saunière, the priest from 1885 to 1910, had discovered the lost treasure of Solomon, brought to the region by the Visigoths in the 5th century. We’ll have time for lunch before a beautiful drive takes us back to the Château, stopping in Puivert on the way. Relatively intact for a Cathar castle, Puivert is in a wonderful position overlooking the surrounding countryside. We’ll also visit the Museum of Quercorb (the local name for the surrounding area) in the village. Tonight, we celebrate with a final dinner at the Château, always beautifully presented by master chef Tom Sleigh. (B, D) Overnight: Camon

Saturday, October 13th - Reluctantly we will bid farewell to the Château de Camon this morning and head back to Toulouse Airport for flights back to the US. (B)
