

A WEEK AT LA RESIDENCIA, DEIA, MALLORCA
OCTOBER 9TH - 17TH 2019

A shining jewel set in a silver sea, the island of Mallorca lies in the Mediterranean, off the east coast of Spain. And it is here that can be found one of the most beautiful hotels in the world - La Residencia. Seemingly built around the centuries-old olive trees scattered throughout the grounds, the hotel is a treasure trove of art, boasting over 150 pieces by Joan Miró and over 1,000 pieces by other renowned artists, all carefully placed around the property.

Though politically a part of Spain, the local inhabitants are fiercely independent and regard themselves as Mallorquin first and Spanish second, speaking their own native dialect, in addition to Castillian Spanish. The island is at once small enough to be easily manageable, but large enough to provide a variety of landscapes and resources. From the mountains of the northwest to the fertile central plain, there is an abundance of historical and artistic treasure to occupy the discerning visitor. And, of course, there are the beautiful beaches that will happily be empty of European tourists, seeking the sun, who flock to the island in the summer months.

In October the weather is still warm, and the historical sites will be blessedly free of tour buses. The tour will be led by local resident and Discover Europe guide, Gavin Miller. Born in England, Gavin studied art history at Cambridge, before following in the footsteps of Robert Graves and making his home on the island. He divides his time between running a local theatre company and being a tour guide.

Join other Smith Alumnae and friends this fall for a week away in an island paradise - staying in one of the best hotels in the world (www.belmond.com/LaResidencia)!

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 11TH - Today, after a leisurely breakfast, we meet the curator of the hotel's art collection, Cecilie Sheridan, for a walking tour highlighting the priceless paintings and sculptures around the property as well as the local artist's studios, pointing out the important historical parts of the village along the way. We'll have time to climb up to the church and visit the grave of poet Robert Graves, who made the village his home for many years. After lunch in the village (included) the rest of the afternoon and evening are free. You could stroll down to the beach, visit Robert Graves' house (now a museum), or just enjoy the wonderful amenities of La Residencia. (B, L) OVERNIGHT: DEIÀ

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 12TH - Our first stop today will be to nearby Valldemossa and the Carthusian Monastery that was home to Frederick Chopin and Georges Sand in the winter of 1838-9. We'll tour the monastery and then attend a recital using the same piano on which Chopin composed. After free time for lunch in the town, we'll continue through the mountains to the Jardins d'Alfabia. This amazing house and its associated gardens, are typical of a grand Mallorcan estate, known locally as a "possession." Then a short drive brings us to the beautiful town of Sóller, where you will be free to explore. You might visit the Museum Ca'n Prunera, a wonderful modern art collection exhibited in a restored art nouveau mansion, or take the electric tram down the valley to the Port of Soller and stroll the boutiques along the quayside, stopping for coffee at one of the many waterside restaurants. We'll stop for dinner in Soller before returning to our hotel. (B, D) OVERNIGHT: DEIÀ

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 13TH - Today our tour guide, Gavin Miller, will lead an excursion into the capital, Palma, a city of some 300,000 inhabitants. To get there, we'll take the vintage electric train from Soller, that first ran this route through the mountains in 1912. On arrival we'll take a walking tour of the historic center that includes the fabulous Gothic cathedral, known as "La Seu," and the Moorish Palacio de la Almudaina, with beautiful gardens featuring a Calder mobile. There will be free time for lunch and exploration before we take the train back to Soller for our ride back to Deià. The evening is free in Deià. (B) OVERNIGHT: DEIÀ

MONDAY OCTOBER 14TH - Our excursion today takes us to the southeast corner of the island. Beginning with the charming fishing village of Portocolom, we'll have time to stroll the waterfront or sit and have coffee in one of the harborside cafes. Lunch will be included at the nearby mountaintop monastery of San Salvador – the best paella on the island. After lunch, we will drive back across the island and visit Petra and the Birthplace Museum of Junipero de Serra, a Franciscan friar who established a string of missions along the coast of California. Tonight, you have a free evening. (B, L) OVERNIGHT: DEIÀ

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 15TH - This morning we head down to the water to board a private charter boat and set out for a different perspective on this magical island that has been captivating artists for centuries. A short tour along the coast will bring us to beautiful cliffside caves, crystal-clear waters, and provide swimming opportunities for the more adventurous. On returning to port we will have time for lunch. This afternoon we have organized a painting class with the artist-in-residence, Alan Hydes, for those who are interested. This evening we'll go out for dinner at a local restaurant set high in the mountains. (B, D) OVERNIGHT: DEIÀ

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 16TH - This morning we'll explore the mountains to the north of Soller, where the first stop will be the Monastery of Lluc. Lluc has been a center of pilgrimage since the 13th century when an Arab shepherd boy, newly converted to Christianity, discovered a dark wooden statue of the Virgin in a cleft in the rock. The image was placed in the local church but three times it returned miraculously to its cave, whereupon the villagers built the monastery to house it. Descending, we'll stop in the charming village of Pollenca for lunch before heading to the north coast at Alcudia. Here we'll visit the Roman City of Pollentia, capital of the Roman colonies of the Balearic Islands. We'll return via the mountain village of Fornalutx, where we'll stop for dinner. (B, D) OVERNIGHT: DEIÀ

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 17TH - Alas, all good things must come to an end, and this morning we transfer back to Palma Airport for return flights to the US. (B)
