Everyone at Smith extends a warm welcome to you as you celebrate Reunion. We look forward to greeting you as you attend the many activities planned for this weekend.

This is an exciting time for Smith College and the AASC, as together we embark on a new strategic path for engaging alumnae and a bold, comprehensive campaign, Women for the World, that will secure Smith’s place as the pre-eminent source of women leaders. While you are on campus, take the opportunity to learn about the work of the Alumnae Engagement Task Force, and observe, reflect on and enjoy all the college has become. We are grateful for your support.

Reunion Weekend represents a combined and meticulous effort by the members of many departments, working together to ensure a program of distinction. We thank everyone involved in making the weekend possible and recognize the outstanding level of cooperation and hard work that is part of organizing such an array of events.

We also thank alumnae class officers and volunteers who have generously given their time to enrich the Reunion Weekend schedule of events.

Enjoy your time on campus.

REUNION PROGRAMS

Academic Offerings
Expand your intellectual horizons through lectures and presentations by Smith faculty on Friday and Saturday that replace the full-day, fee-based Alumnae College program. It’s our way of reminding you of Smith’s rich and vibrant academic environment. See pages 3–5.

Alumnae Association Annual Meeting
At this annual meeting, meet Smith’s new vice president of alumnae relations Jennifer Chrisler, learn about the work of the Alumnae Engagement Task Force, and elect, by voice-vote, the new slate of directors for the AASC. The Smith Fund gift will also be presented, along with alumnae class awards for Reunion attendance, record-breaking class giving and participation, planned giving participation, outstanding alumnae volunteer service and for the class with the highest percentage of members in any Friends Group this fiscal year. Award urns will be on display at the Alumnae House throughout the weekend. (See page 13, notes 3 and 4.) Alumnae participating in the alumnae parade and AASC Annual Meeting are asked to wear white with white or light shoes.

In the event of rain, the Alumnae Parade and Alumnae Association Annual Meeting will be held in the Indoor Track and Tennis Facility. The signal for such a change in venue will be the ringing of the college bells at 8:15 a.m. Alumnae should enter through the main ITT entrance, look for their class year signs along the far wall and line up with their classes. Alumnae class officer photos will be taken in front of the reviewing stand at the conclusion of the program.

Alumnae Oral History Project
The Smith College Alumnae Oral History Project wants to hear your stories! During Reunion weekend, staff from the College Archives will conduct short oral histories with Smith alumnae about your memories, the impact of Smith and your reflections on women’s education. See page 3 and visit the College Archives for information.

Bike Rentals
See the campus on two wheels! Experience the campus the way you did as a student. Rent a bike and helmet from the student-run Bicycle Kitchen at Talbot House. Rent for a day or the entire weekend.

Brought your own bike to Reunion? Visit the Bike Kitchen for skilled assistance. Bike racks are available at all class headquarters.

Career Workshops
Colleen delVecchio, associate director for alumnae engagement, will present three workshops for alumnae during the weekend. See pages 3 and 5.

Sol LeWitt: Wall Drawing #139 from the Permanent Collection of SCMA
In 2000, a member of the Smith class of 1947 gave SCMA the anonymous gift of Wall Drawing #139 (1972) by the American conceptual artist Sol Lewitt (1928–2007). This important early work, executed in black pencil, is now installed in the Smith College Department of Mathematics and Statistics, Burton Hall (third floor) through a partnership between SCMA and MathStudio, an ongoing creative studio space at Smith College focusing on process and dialogue between mathematics and art.
Burton Hall, third floor

Collecting Art of Asia
Marking the 100th anniversary of the first gifts of Asian art from the preeminent collector Charles Lang Freer, this exhibition (on three floors) highlights transformative moments, people, and gifts in the history of collecting and displaying Asian art at SCMA. Chinese, Japanese, Korean, and South and Southeast Asian art from the collection are featured, along with promised gifts. Freer’s close association with painter and Smith professor Dwight Tryon is examined in the exhibition and in the accompanying illustrated SCMA collections catalogue by the same name featuring highlights of SCMA’s Asian holdings.

Contemporary Art from the Permanent Collection in Nixon Gallery
Works by contemporary artists such as Whitfield Lovell, Jaune Quick-to-See Smith and Laurie Simmons, as well as others, are on view in support of K–12 and college class visits.

Framework IX: Restoring the Boundaries
Features a frame created especially for Childe Hassam’s Headlands at Appledore (1907), a bequest of Smith alumna Priscilla Mason, class of 1935. Plus: two frames that were also carefully conserved over the past year—an English frame surrounding Robert Smirke’s Scene from Cibber’s “The Provoked Husband” (late 18th century), and the American frame for Albert Bierstadt’s Echo Lake, Franconia Mountains, New Hampshire (1861). Framework is part of the museum’s long-term effort to study and conserve the frames in its collection.

Guest OneCards (tap cards) serve as keys for entering the houses:

IMPORTANT NOTE: Propping open ANY exterior doors will cause an alarm to sound throughout the house and at Campus Police headquarters.

Smith Traditions

1. The Office of Alumnae Relations
Building relationships across the campus and across the globe to connect more than 47,000 living alumnae with the rich and vibrant community of Smith today, this office provides an array of services to alumnae. Staff support more than a hundred Smith clubs and affinity groups worldwide, organizing class reunions, symposia, travel programs, career services, and other programs and events. For more information about all the services and benefits offered, please visit http://alumnae.smith.edu.

2. The Grécourt Society
The Grécourt Society recognizes alumnae, parents, faculty, staff and friends who have named Smith in their wills or estate plans. Yellow buttons depicting the Grécourt Gates will be handed out for members to wear throughout the weekend. Alumnae who are Grécourt Society members will also be given mystic blue ribbons to be worn during the Ivy Day parade. Additional information about planned gifts and bequests is available by calling (800) 241-2056, option 5; by sending e-mail to gift_planning@smith.edu; or by visiting www.smith.plannedgiving.org.

3. The Alumnae Parade
To honor the tradition of Ivy Days past, all alumnae who wish to march should be dressed all in white and wear a class ribbon. Ada Comstock alumnae may wear a ribbon in their class color and/or the multicolored Ada ribbon. Grécourt Society members may wear additional blue ribbons. Ribbons will be available at the Alumnae House registration tent and along the parade route.

The Alumnae Parade “evolved gradually from the custom of alumnae classes to sally forth upon the campus while the ivy procession was being made up, and extend greetings to the senior class and to each other, and to do honor to the college, its president, members of the faculty and members of the various classes.” The first official parade was held in 1909. Although alumnae now dress uniformly in white, earlier classes had varied, colorful and sometimes quite elaborate costumes. Colored ribbons now differentiate the reunion classes. The class of 1905 was the first to carry “placards,” and by 1915 these signs were a regular feature, “hailed with appreciative applause and laughter all along the march.”

4. Alumnae Association
During reunion in 1881, 47 alumnae from the classes of 1879, 1880 and 1881 founded the Alumnae Association of Smith College. Wanting to instill feelings of Smith pride in future generations of alumnae, they drew up a constitution and crafted a simple purpose: “To further the well-being of the college and its graduates by increasing the interest of members in the college and in each other.” The AASC has a rich history of providing volunteer support to the college, by identifying, testing and training volunteer leaders.

5. The Smith Fund
Help the college to meet its commitment to women poised to lead, create and discover by supporting the Women for the World campaign with a Smith Fund gift. Your donation will allow us to accomplish our goals and will demonstrate that you support the students of today and believe in their potential as the leaders of tomorrow (www.smith.edu/thefund).

Information listed in this program is accurate as of press time. For the latest details, please visit the Alumnae House information table and reunion class headquarters, or consult: http://alumnae.smith.edu/reunion2013
