An Exclusive Journey for the Alumnae Association of Smith College

Featuring Professor Thomas Derr
LEGENDARY TURKEY
FROM ISTANBUL TO THE TURQUOISE COAST

15 days for $3,895 from New York — air, land & cruise inclusive

Exotic sights, scents, and sounds reign in this fascinating land where Europe and Asia meet. From Istanbul, magnificent “Empress of the World,” to ancient ruins, stunning landscapes, and the dramatic Turquoise Coast where we board a privately charted yacht for a distinctive four-day voyage, Turkey engages and beguiles, offering us an unparalleled small group travel experience.

Day 1: Depart U.S. for Istanbul, Turkey

Day 2: Arrive Istanbul We arrive in Turkey’s cultural and spiritual heart late this morning and transfer to our hotel. We are free to explore the bustling area around Taksim Square or relax after our overseas flights.

Day 3: Istanbul Here where the waters of the Marmara, Bosphorus, and Golden Horn meet, Europe greets Asia; past and present collide. We taste Istanbul’s allure on a full-day tour that begins in splendid Topkapi, medieval palace of sultans that today is one of the world’s richest museums. Continue to the vast Grand Bazaar, housing 4,000 shops selling goods of all kinds; and the Spice Market, with exoticspices,nuts, and dried fruits from around the world. There’s time for lunch on our own before we take a privatecruise on the Bosphorus Strait, the waterway that separates Europe from Asia. Tonight we enjoy an authentic Turkish dinner at a local restaurant. B,D

Day 4: Istanbul This morning we encounter the Roman Hippodrome; the renowned Museum of Turkish & Islamic Art, housed in a restored palace; and the marvelous Blue Mosque, topped by six slender minarets. After lunch together in the old town, we visit famed Hagia Sophia. We return to our hotel late this afternoon; tonight you have your choice of many excellent restaurants for dinner. B,L

Day 5: Istanbul/Gallipoli/Troy/Assos Leaving Istanbul this morning, we travel to the northern Aegean Coast for a brief visit to Gallipoli, haunting site of 31 Allied cemeteries from World War I. Then we ferry across the Dardanelles to Troy, whose present site was discovered in the 1870s. After touring here we continue south to Behramkale, ancient Assos, where we spend the night. \textbf{B,L,D}

\textbf{Day 6: Assos/Pergamum/Izmir} Today we explore one of Turkey’s most spectacular ancient sites: windswept Pergamum, a major power in the 3\textsuperscript{rd} and 2\textsuperscript{nd} centuries BC, with a wealth of Hellenistic ruins. Then we continue on to Izmir. \textbf{B,L,D}

\textbf{Day 7: Izmir/Ephesus} Few ancient sites compare to Ephesus, which we explore today. Dating to at least 1300 BC, Ephesus was Asia Minor’s largest metropolis and principal port. We also visit the acclaimed Ephesus Archaeological Museum housing relics from the ancient site, then enjoy lunch together in the rustic village of Sirince. \textbf{B,L}

\textbf{Day 8: Izmir/Göcek} Today we journey south to coastal Göcek, stopping along the way at a carpet factory to watch a demonstration of this age-old craft. In the late afternoon we reach Göcek and board our \textit{gulets} for our first night on board. \textbf{B,L,D}

\textbf{Day 9: Cruising – Aga Limani/Cleopatra Baths} Our route for the next few days is along the stunning coastline Antony is said to have given Cleopatra as a wedding gift. We begin our “Blue Voyage” this morning as we cruise to the hidden cove of Aga Limani. From here we have the option of taking a three-hour hike to the Greco-Roman ruins at Lydea, ending at the Sunken Baths of Cleopatra, which offer crystal-clear waters for swimming and snorkeling. Those who prefer a less strenuous day can stay aboard the \textit{gulets} as they sail to the Sunken Baths. \textbf{B,L,D}

\textbf{Day 10: Cruising – Ekincik Cove/Dalyan} This morning we disembark and drive to Dalyan, an environmentally protected area known for its loggerhead sea turtles. Here we board a small skiff for a trip through a maze of channels; high on the hills above we see well-preserved ancient Lycian rock tombs. After lunch we drive back to our \textit{gulets} for a relaxing afternoon in this stunning setting. \textbf{B,L,D}

\textbf{Day 11: Cruising – Gemiler Island/Kayakoy} Today we cruise to Gemiler Island to tour its 6\textsuperscript{th}-century Byzantine monastery. After lunch we drive to the Greek “ghost town” of Kayakoy, which was abandoned after World War I and is now preserved as a historical monument. We explore the town and its churches then return to our \textit{gulets} for our last night on board. \textbf{B,L,D}

\textbf{Post-Tour Extension: Sep. 24-28, 2011}

\textbf{CAPPADOCIA & ANKARA}

\textbf{5 days/4 nights for $795}

Single Supplement: $195

We explore the bizarre rock formations and underground cities of Cappadocia and the Goreme Valley; and also tour Ankara, Turkey’s capital.

\textbf{Your Tour Price Includes}

\begin{itemize}
  \item 4 nights accommodations: 3 nights in Cappadocia at Uchisar Kaya Hotel (First Class); 1 night in Ankara at Hilton Ankara (Deluxe)
  \item 11 meals: 4 breakfasts, 3 lunches, 4 dinners
  \item Extensive included sightseeing
  \item Services of an Odysseys Unlimited Tour Director
  \item Private motorcoach transportation
  \item Gratuities for dining room servers, airport and hotel porters, and all drivers
\end{itemize}
Day 12: Fethiye/Demre/Myra/Antalya
This morning we have a short cruise to Fethiye, disembark, bid farewell to our crew, and begin the drive to Antalya. Along the way we visit Demre to tour the striking Roman ruins at nearby Myra and visit the 12th-century Church of Saint Nicholas. After lunch in Demre we continue the drive along the Turquoise Coast to the resort town of Antalya. B,L,D

Day 13: Antalya
On a walking tour, we encounter highlights of Antalya’s charming Old Town, including the extravagantly carved Hadrian’s Gate and the lovely Yivli Minare (fluted minaret). After a visit to the Archaeological Museum, this afternoon is at leisure. Tonight we enjoy dinner at a local restaurant. B,D

Day 14: Antalya/Perge/Aspendos
This morning we visit the ruins at ancient Perge, which reached its apex during the reign of Alexander the Great. We continue on to Aspendos, whose huge theater is considered among the best preserved in all of antiquity. This afternoon is at leisure before we gather for a farewell dinner this evening. B,D

Day 15: Depart for U.S.
We board early flights to return to the United States. B

Meet Your Smith Faculty Speaker
Thomas S. Derr, professor emeritus of Religion, joined the Smith faculty in 1963 as assistant chaplain instructor in religion. He went on to serve as religion department chair from 1971 to 1974 and again from 1994 to 1997. During his 40 years at Smith, Professor Derr taught courses in social and political ethics and in religion in America. He was the founding chair of the Afro-American studies department and served as its chair from 1991 to 1993 and 1998 to 1999. He received the Honored Professor award in 2002.

Professor Derr received his A.B. from Harvard, his M.Div. from Union Theological Seminary, and his Ph.D. at Columbia. He was ordained to the ministry of the United Church of Christ in 1956. Dear Alumnae and Friends,

The Alumnae Association of Smith College invites you to join us on an exclusive 15-day tour to legendary Turkey and its magnificent Turquoise Coast. You’ll explore this vast country where Europe and Asia — past and present — meet to form the “cradle of civilization.” We are delighted to have Thomas Derr, professor emeritus of Religion, as our Smith Faculty Speaker. Additionally, our tour will be accompanied by a seasoned Turkish tour director. Through in-depth experiences along the way, your understanding of this unique country will be thoroughly enriched.

This educational odyssey begins in Istanbul with its many treasures: the legendary Blue Mosque, Topkapi Palace and the 6th century Hagia Sofia. Then travel south to explore the World War I battlefield of Gallipoli, the fabled ruins of ancient Troy, the Greco-Roman ruins at Pergamum, and spectacular Ephesus, the world’s best-preserved classical city. A special part of the journey takes place on the sea during a four-night private cruise aboard beautifully-crafted replicas of traditional Turkish fishing boats. Today’s gulets are built with modern comforts in mind and include individual cabins with private bath. With your own crew and cook, cruise in and out of pristine coves along the renowned Turquoise Coast and disembark occasionally for a tour of old ruins, an island hike, or an Aegean swim. The tour concludes with three nights in the seaside resort town of Antalya. An optional 5-day/4-night post-tour extension to Cappadocia and Ankara is also available. In Cappadocia visit the ethereal landscapes and ancient Christian churches carved into the rock. End your journey with a visit to Ankara, Turkey’s modern-day capital.

With our group limited to only 28 travelers, all with Smith College affiliation, space will fill up fast; your early reservations are encouraged. Join us on this wonderful tour!

Warm regards,

Carrie Cadwell Brown, Ed. M ’82

Responsibility
The liability of the Alumnae Association of Smith College, as sponsor, and Odysseys Unlimited, Inc., as tour operator, is strictly limited. Odysseys Unlimited, Inc. purchases transportation, hotel accommodations, restaurant and other services from independent suppliers not under our control. We serve only as agents for these suppliers in securing tour arrangements, and therefore will not accept responsibility for wrongful, negligent, or arbitrary acts or omissions of these independent contractors, their employees, agents, servants or representatives. The Alumnae Association of Smith College and Odysseys Unlimited, Inc. are not liable for injury, damage, loss, accident, or delay that may be caused by events not within our control, including without limitation, acts of terrorism, war, strikes, the defect of any vehicle, or the negligence or default of any third party. All coupons, receipts, and tickets issued are subject to the terms and conditions specified by the air carriers, cruise line, and other independent suppliers.

We will make every effort to operate our tours as planned, but we reserve the right to make itinerary changes as necessary. If unforeseen circumstances require us to change a hotel, we will select alternative accommodations of the same or better quality. If you choose to make your own air arrangements, Odysseys Unlimited, Inc. shall not have any liability for any loss resulting from cancellation of this tour or changes in this tour.

Health and Medical Issues
We request that you be in good health to participate in this tour. There is a reasonable amount of walking, and you must be able to get on and off motorcoaches and ships on your own. If you require the use of a wheelchair or have other personal needs, you must be accompanied by a companion who will assist you. We reserve the right to remove anyone whose physical or mental condition, in our opinion, compromises the operation of the tour or detracts from the enjoyment or safety of the other passengers. In that event, Smith College and Odysseys Unlimited, Inc. assume no financial responsibility for any unused portion of the tour.
