Smith reunions are legendary. Anyone who has ever been to one will tell you that. The campus springs to life with the sound of hundreds of Smith women finding old friends, visiting those places that hold fond memories, and rediscovering the magic of the Smith experience. The Ivy Day parade, Illumination night, the entertainment, the laughter .... Don’t miss out on all the fun.

Why Come to Reunion?

Smith is yours for the weekend! So come back and …

Reconnect with your friends and fellow classmates.
Miss those late-night chats with your housemates or the treks through downtown Northampton to the Academy of Music, Rahar’s, Fitzwilly’s, or Pearl Street? Reunion is the perfect time to relive those days and catch up with the friends who made your years at Smith some of the most memorable of your life.

Rediscover the excitement of a Smith classroom.
Rekindle your intellectual passions through our exciting Alumnae College program, which features a sampling of some of the best classes Smith has to offer. Faculty from a variety of disciplines will share their expertise and engage you in the kind of intellectual debate you remember from your own days as a student. The best part: no tests. So you can sit back, listen, and learn.

Celebrate traditions (and create new ones).
From the Ivy Day parade to Illumination night, Reunion weekend is steeped in traditions that tie together generations of Smith women. You’ll participate in all of them and experience the sense of history that makes a Smith reunion so unique. While you’re at it, why not start some new traditions of your own?

Have fun!
There’s a reason why Smith reunions are so popular: Smith women know how to have a good time. For three days, the Smith campus is yours to explore and enjoy. Stay up late, spend time relaxing by Paradise Pond, visit your old haunts. The choice is yours. The only requirements: have fun and make the most of your time on campus!
The alumnae association and alumnae classes plan fun-filled and reflective weekends that are loaded with options. But don’t worry: you’re not expected to attend every event. In addition to the framework of scheduled events, there will be plenty of opportunities to roam the campus and see how things have changed since your last visit. You may not be able to see every corner of the campus, but enjoy the time you have with your classmates—and know you are welcome back anytime!

Classes returning on Reunion/Commencement weekend will share houses with exuberant seniors who are celebrating their accomplishments and spending their last, sometimes boisterous, days on campus.

Remember that New England weather in May is unpredictable. Pack a couple of layers, as you may encounter heat, cold, rain, or sun. Don’t forget that attire for the alumnae parade on Saturday morning is all white. Ribbons in your class color will be available at the Alumnae House registration tent and along the parade route.

Above all, relax, reconnect, and enjoy your weekend!

What to Expect

EARLY BIRD DEADLINE IS MARCH 30
Registration

After reviewing the information in this booklet, please complete the enclosed registration form and send it, along with your payment, in the enclosed envelope to the Alumnae Association. If paying by credit card, you may register online at http://alumnae.smith.edu, or mail or fax your completed form (fax to 413-585-2015). We accept MasterCard and Visa. We cannot accept registrations over the phone.

Registration and payment must be postmarked by March 30 or earlier to qualify for the early bird rates. If you wish to add meals, housing, etc. after March 30, higher prices will prevail for any additional reservations.

If you are registering for another classmate as well as yourself, please complete a separate form and enclose a separate check for each classmate you register.

By registering for Reunion, alumnae understand and agree that Smith College and the AASC will be taking photos of Reunion and college events, and may publish them in any format or media without additional permission from those individuals in the photo.

Register Early!

Registering before March 30 will save you a substantial amount of money on your registration costs. It will also guarantee you a place in on-campus housing and at class meals. Register online at http://alumnae.smith.edu.

Questions About Reunion?

Please visit our Web site for additional information and online registration: http://alumnae.smith.edu.

For answers to questions about Reunion registration, Alumnae College, meal reservations, or campus housing, contact the Alumnae Association at 800-526-2023, ext. 4; 413-585-2040.

For answers to questions about your class’ Reunion activities, contact your class Reunion chair listed on page 18 or 19 of this booklet.

Questions about Alumnae Fund gifts may be directed to the Alumnae Fund at 800-241-2056 or 413-585-2056, or visit the fund online at http://www.smith.edu/future/giving.
Fees

- Alumnae Association Registration Fee: This mandatory fee helps the Alumnae Association defray the costs of Reunion not included in the campus housing fee.

- Class Registration Fee: This mandatory fee helps your class cover the cost of its Reunion program. Class registration fees are set by the class Reunion committee.

- On-Campus Bed & Breakfast Fee: The package rate is $132 ($157 after March 30) for Thursday, Friday, and Saturday nights of your Reunion weekend, and continental breakfast on Friday, Saturday, and Sunday mornings. This fee cannot be prorated on a per-night basis.

- Meals: Meal space is limited by the capacity of the location in which each meal is held. After March 30, meal reservations will be accepted on a space-available basis only, at an additional charge. If the maximum number of reservations for a meal is reached, you will be placed on a waiting list. Class meal prices include a social hour with appetizers before dinner, salad, entrée, dessert with coffee or tea, and wine during dinner. Vegetarian alternatives are available for all meals.

- Life Members of the AASC: If you are a fully paid life member of the Alumnae Association in a reuning class earlier than 1996, you will receive a bright yellow postcard that entitles you to a $25 discount, which may be applied to your on-campus bed and breakfast registration or Alumnae College registration fees. This discount does not apply to the class registration fee, the AASC registration fee, or meal registration fees.

Register for Reunion online. It’s fast and easy! Visit http://alumnae.smith.edu and look for links to the Reunion registration page.

Please remember to deduct your discount from the total due on your registration. If applicable, this discount will automatically be deducted from online registrations. If you do not receive your postcard, please call the Alumnae Association at 800-526-2023, ext. 4.

- Refund Policy: The class registration fee, Alumnae Association registration fee, and Alumnae College lunch fee are nonrefundable. Requests for refunds of meal or bed and breakfast payments must be made in writing and received by e-mail, fax, or postmarked no later than April 29. We are unable to refund meal and bed and breakfast payments after April 29. All refund requests will be processed following the completion of the second Reunion weekend. Please allow up to four weeks after the second Reunion weekend for receipt of your refund.
Eplicate your undergraduate days with our engaging academic programs. The schedule includes a menu of short sessions taught by Smith faculty on a range of topics, from literature to geology and money management. This is a great opportunity to experience the excitement of a Smith classroom and to learn firsthand about the cutting-edge scholarship being conducted by Smith faculty.

Course Descriptions

Telling and Retelling

PAT SKARDA
Professor of English language and literature

Three versions of a famous short story, “The Lady with the Pet Dog” by Anton Chekhov (1899), will be sent in advance to alumnae participating in this class on modern retellings of literary antecedents. We will look at how and why Joyce Carol Oates and Beth Lordan read and transform the original Chekhov tale. In so doing, we will consider other modern retellings of famous literary antecedents ranging from the sublime (A.S. Byatt’s Possession and Michael Cunningham’s The Hours) to the ridiculous (Katharine Weber’s The Little Women and Alice Randall’s The Wind Done Gone). Many are the prequels, sequels, and gap-filling modern tales that retell old stories from decidedly new perspectives.
Natural Disasters: Assessing the Past and the Future

ROBERT BURGER
Achilles Professor of Geology

This session will begin with a brief overview of common geological and meteorological hazards and how best to cope with them. We then will consider the major disasters of the past two years and discuss how society could have been better prepared to mitigate these events. Finally, we will turn to what the future might hold and the actions society must take to confront the inevitable.

Michelangelo: Re-viewing Art and Life

ALFONSO PROCACCINI
Professor of Italian language and literature

One of the most famous—and perhaps the greatest artist who ever lived—Michelangelo Buonarroti (1475–1564) was also a deeply devout man whose paramount concern was the salvation of his soul. Like the Greek epic hero Ulysses, or Italy’s most renowned poet Dante, Michelangelo was beset by a long life of temptations and dangers, hence regarding his life as a “journey across a stormy sea, in a fragile boat…. ” In our brief overview, we will re-view some of Michelangelo’s masterpieces in light of his own revisions of both his life and his art.

The Tower and the Bridge (May 19 only)

ANDREW GUSWA
Assistant professor of engineering

This course examines the development of large structures throughout history with emphasis on the past 200 years. Following the evolution of ideas and materials, participants will interpret significant works from scientific, social, and symbolic perspectives and will learn to identify works of structural art, characterized by efficiency, economy, and elegance.

Registration Information

Classes are offered during two sessions in the morning on May 19 and May 26. Each session costs $50. The special lunch and lecture is $35. Please indicate on your Reunion registration form which classes (A, B, C, etc.) you would like to attend and whether you will attend the lunch. Questions: 800-526-2023, ext. 4.

Ecohydrology and Water Resources: Learning from Costa Rica (May 19 only)

ANDREW GUSWA
Assistant professor of engineering

The wetlands of Palo Verde and the cloud forests of Monteverde, Costa Rica, exemplify the delicate balances among climate, hydrology, habitat, and development. This course will introduce the processes of the hydrologic cycle and how they influence ecosystems and water resources with examples from these special places in Costa Rica.

Moving Toward Sustainability: Smith College, the Pioneer Valley, and Beyond (May 26 only)

THOMAS LITWIN
Director, Clark Science Center

This session will begin with a discussion of the underlying pressures, rationales, and definitions for creating a sustainable future. Participants will join a panel of sustainability experts in discussing the challenges of balancing economic, social, and environmental needs. Examples from the Smith campus will be used as case studies to examine such topics as recycling, energy efficiency, and the “green” construction of the new Engineering and Molecular Biology building.

Women and Financial Independence I: Principles of Investing (May 26 only)

ROGER T. KAUFMAN
Professor of economics and WFI faculty

This session will provide an introduction to stocks and bonds for those with no investing background. Topics will include: what are stocks and bonds and why do corporations issue them; market capitalization; price/earnings ratios; different classifications of stocks (large, mid and small caps; growth vs. value stocks); the long-run performance of stocks vs. bonds; dividends and stock splits; stock exchanges; the calculation of stock market indices; and an introduction to mutual funds.

Women and Financial Independence II: Intermediate Principles of Investing (May 26 only)

ROGER T. KAUFMAN
Professor of economics and WFI faculty

This session will build on the “Principles of Investing” program and is designed for those with some familiarity with financial markets. Topics from the early session will be reviewed quickly, and diversification, mutual funds, index funds, and exchange-traded funds will be discussed in more detail. Finally, topics such as technical analysis, fundamental analysis, and the efficient market hypothesis will be presented.

Objects of Desire: Compulsive Hoarding and the Meaning of Things (May 26 only)

RANDY FROST
H.E. and E.S. Israel Professor of Psychology

The things we own offer us comfort, convenience, and pleasure, so it is not unusual for us to become emotionally attached to them or to want to save things that might be useful. However, when this tendency results in a home so full that it is unusable, these aspects of ownership become dysfunctional. This session reviews the research on compulsive hoarding and the development of treatment programs for hoarding.

LUNCH AND PRESENTATION

Just Enough: Paradoxical Frameworks for Lasting Success

LAURA NASH
Senior lecturer, Harvard Business School, and author of Just Enough: Tools for Creating Success in Your Work and Life

As women anticipate a lifetime of accomplishment on multiple fronts—career, family, social, and civic life—traditional models of success fail to satisfy their needs. This session will explore four critical dimensions of success and their particular implications for women’s careers.

Cost: $35. You must indicate on your Reunion registration form that you would like to attend this special event.
Sure, we’d love for you to spend all your time on campus, but we know your family isn’t always going to get as excited as you might for that fifth visit to the classroom where Mom took her first biology exam. Here are some local attractions that the entire family can enjoy. All are within a half-hour’s drive from Smith.

Northampton

Look Memorial Park
A classic scenic park ideal for family gatherings. Children can enjoy rides on the Steamer Railroad, as well as pedal boats, picnics, the spray park, playgrounds, walking trails, miniature golf, and the Christenson Zoo. There is a nominal entry charge as well as fees for the various attractions.

Amherst

Eric Carle Museum of Picture Book Art
The museum’s namesake is a renowned children’s book author, perhaps best known for classics such as The Very Hungry Caterpillar and The Grouchy Ladybug, among others. The museum features three galleries dedicated to rotating exhibitions of picture book art, a hands-on art studio, and space for performances and lectures. A fun—and educational—getaway for the entire family.

Emily Dickinson Museum and House
The Homestead and The Evergreens, two houses that played important roles in Emily Dickinson’s upbringing, offer...
Child Care

THE ALUMNAE ASSOCIATION has contracted with Children’s Conference Care, Inc. (CCCI) to provide child-care services during both Reunion weekends, allowing parents the freedom to attend Reunion dinners while their children enjoy a variety of activities and make new friends.

CCCI, a leader in child care for reunions and conferences throughout New England, will be on campus to provide child care for children ages 3 and up. Many children who have participated in CCCI’s program compare their experience to attending summer camp. Recreational activities, board games, and arts and crafts will be available, and after viewing an evening video, younger children will have a space to rest or sleep. CCCI’s staff members are caring, enthusiastic, and dedicated to ensuring that every child enjoys a safe and fun-filled experience.

Each weekend, staff will provide care on Friday and Saturday evenings from 5 to 10. CCCI requires a 10-child minimum per session and charges a nominal fee. For detailed information and a registration packet (available March 15), please e-mail childconf@aol.com, or call CCCI at 617-492-6925. The registration deadline is May 1, 2006. Pre-registration is strongly recommended; walk-ins will be accepted only if there is adequate staffing.

Intriguing glimpses into the reclusive poet’s life. Tour each house and see the rooms where Dickinson began composing her poetry. The grounds are stunning, and The Evergreens is furnished with original furniture once owned by the Dickinson family.

Magic Wings Butterfly Conservatory and Gardens
Immerse yourself in a world of butterflies. In the facility’s 8,000-square-foot glass conservatory, nearly 4,000 butterflies of various sizes and colors fly freely, landing on your shoulders or head or resting comfortably in the palm of your hand. Exhibits and videos tell the story of butterflies, and helpful attendants are available to answer all of your questions.

How to Get to Smith

By Air
The major airport servicing the Northampton area is Bradley International Airport in Windsor Locks, Connecticut.

Limousine services require advance reservations. If you are interested, please call one of the following companies:

To/From Bradley Airport: Valley Transporter, 413-253-1350 or 800-872-8752; reservations required. Royal Coach Limousine, 800-325-1976 or 413-592-1000; 24 hours’ notice is required.

By Train
Amtrak Train Station, 800-872-7245. Service to Springfield only; bus service to Northampton is available one block from the train station.

To/From Amtrak Train Station: Valley Transporter, 413-253-1350 or 800-872-8752; reservations required.

By Bus
Peter Pan Bus Lines, 800-343-9999. Bus service running from Boston and New York via Springfield is available.

By Car
Take Interstate 91 north or south to exit 18 (Route 5). Turn left onto Route 5 north and continue to the intersection with Route 9 west (Main Street). Follow Route 9 through the next set of lights; the Alumnae House is the second building on the right after St. Mary’s Church.

Parking: Parking is available in designated areas only, including the campus parking garage on West Street. On-campus shuttle service will be available throughout both Reunion weekends. Cars may be left overnight on city streets, except in posted areas. All parking ordinances remain in effect for the city of Northampton, including parking meters. Neither the Alumnae Association nor the college is responsible for fines incurred for parking violations.

AASC Reunion Travel Stipends
The Alumnae Association provides limited Reunion travel stipends for alumnae to help defray the cost of traveling to Northampton. This stipend may be applied to travel expenses for alumnae only and may only partially cover travel costs. If you need assistance with travel expenses, please send a letter, in confidence, to: Reunion Travel Stipend, Alumnae Outreach, 33 Elm Street, Northampton, MA 01063.

To be considered for a travel stipend, all requests must be made in writing and postmarked on or before March 28, 2006.

In your letter, please indicate your travel plans, the amount of travel expenses you will incur, and an address, phone number, and e-mail address where you can be contacted. If your request can be fulfilled, the Alumnae Association will notify you of the amount of the stipend by April 22. Requests are taken on a first-come, first-served basis. When you arrive at Reunion in May, you will be asked to submit receipts to the Alumnae Association detailing your travel expenses. At that time, the Alumnae Association will give you a check for the amount of your stipend.

Please indicate special needs and housing requests in the space provided on your registration form. The Alumnae Association will issue room information when you arrive on campus. On-campus rooms will be available at 3 p.m. Thursday. We are unable to change room assignments. Most rooms are singles, with a single bed. No cots can be provided for guests. Adult guests staying in campus housing will be assigned rooms that are located as close as possible to the alumna they are accompanying. Children may stay in a parent’s room at no extra charge; however, sleeping bags, portacots, and linens should be brought from home.

There are no special arrangements for male guests in terms of restroom facilities.

We would be remiss if we did not remind you that college houses are not equal to hotels or motels. Student residences are not air-conditioned and many do not have elevators. You will not have access to a refrigerator or kitchen facilities. Please do not bring valuables, because you will not receive a key to your room. For security purposes, Reunion student workers will be on doorwatch in the houses.

Rooms have a minimum of conveniences—sheets, one pillow, one blanket, one towel, one washcloth, soap, and hangers. Anything else you might require should be brought from home. Smoking is prohibited in all Smith College buildings. No pets are allowed in campus buildings.

Where You’ll Stay

On-Campus Rooms

On-campus room reservations are made on your Reunion registration form. The campus housing package includes Thursday, Friday, and Saturday nights, with continental breakfast on Friday, Saturday, and Sunday mornings. This fee cannot be prorated on a per-night basis.

Hotels and Motels in Proximity to Smith College

Reservations for hotel/motel accommodations should be made directly with the hotel/motel as early as possible. For information regarding area hotels and motels, please call the Greater Northampton Chamber of Commerce at 413-584-1900, or visit their Web site at http://chamber.northampton.ma.us.
AASC’s 125th Anniversary Celebration

During Reunion in 1881, forty-seven alumnae, from the classes of 1879, 1880, and 1881, founded the Alumnae Association of Smith College. Wanting to instill feelings of pride in Smith in future generations of alumnae, they drew up a constitution and crafted a simple purpose: “To further the well-being of the college and its graduates by increasing the interest of members in the college and in each other.” To this day, the Alumnae Association has never strayed from that mission.

This year, the Alumnae Association is celebrating its 125th anniversary, which will kickoff on campus at Reunion in May and continue throughout the year with various events and programs geared toward enhancing alumnae connections—to classmates, the college, and the association.

Watch for a mailing with more details in the fall and always visit the Alumnae Association online at http://alumnae.smith.edu to find out about all the wonderful services and benefits the Alumnae Association has to offer you.

Service of Remembrance

During All Reunion weekend, the Service of Remembrance will feature an alumnae choir. All alumnae on campus that weekend are welcome to participate. If you are interested in singing in the choir, or would like to play an instrument, contact the music department at 413-585-3150. The choir will rehearse on Friday. If you would like to participate in the service in other ways, please contact the staff of the Helen Hills Hills Chapel at 413-585-2754.

Shaping the Future of Smith

President Carol Christ invites alumnae to share their thoughts on how their Smith experience influences their lives, work, and values. How can we shape the college’s future so that a Smith education continues to produce generations of remarkable women? During Reunion, President Christ will be holding a session for alumnae to offer their ideas and opinions. You may also join the discussion by visiting http://www.smith.edu/future/shaping.

Alumnae Fund

No one knows the benefits of the Smith experience better than you. Please help keep the Alumnae Fund strong and maintain the college’s commitment to women poised to lead, create, and discover. We’re counting on those who enjoy the fruits of a Smith education to plant the seeds of opportunity for this generation of Smith women.

All gifts, regardless of designation, receive class credit. We are pleased that so many alumnae choose to make their gifts to Smith through the Alumnae Fund. These gifts fund critical needs at Smith, such as financial aid, faculty development, and research opportunities.

To make a gift, please contact the Alumnae Fund at 800-241-2056 or 413-585-2056. Visit the fund online at http://www.smith.edu/future/giving.
