LUNCHEON AND MEETING

“Teaching to Empower”

Dr. Carrie Baker, Professor of the Study of Women and Gender, Smith College

Carrie Baker teaches about a range of issues that can be difficult for students to encounter, such as sexual harassment, domestic violence, sex trafficking, and shackling of incarcerated women during childbirth. She will share with you the strategies she has developed to balance teaching about social injustice with giving students hope—and concrete tools—to fight for social justice.

Dr. Baker earned her Ph.D., J.D. and M.A. from Emory University, and her B.A. from Yale University.
