BECOME INVOLVED WITH SCCW!
SCCW cares about your time and the environment! But, if you do not have regular internet/email access, we still want you to stay engaged, so please contact the SCCW Office (202-836-7244) to arrange to have correspondence downloaded and mailed to you as often as feasible.
What suggestions and/or ideas do you have for the SCCW? What programs/events would you enjoy?
If you would like to host an event, please let us know what type of event and how many guests you can accommodate.
If you would like to present a program/talk, recruit students, sell pecans , fundraise (for SCCW events and scholarship fund), read to Garrison ES students, mentor /be mentored, or join the board , please circle and provide details by contacting the SCCW Office (via this form, email, or phone).
If you can provide an internship , job leads , and/or guidance (field? interests?) to Smith students and/or alumnae, please let us know.
If you can provide free or low-cost housing for Smith students and/or alumnae (how many/when?), please let us know.

SCCW and the SCCW Scholarship Fund are 501(c)(3) nonprofit entities. Annual membership dues contributions defray the club's operations and programming costs. Scholarship contributions provide financial support, through an endowed fund, to students attending Smith College from Washington, D.C., Maryland, and Virginia. Both membership and scholarship fund contributions may be tax-deductible, and both are greatly appreciated.
